

TROOPS MOVE INTO COAL STRIKE AREA

JOHNSON SEES
REAL SUCCESS
FOR RECOVERYCREDIT PLEDGED BY BANKS TO HELP
CAMPAIGN

BY JAMES P. SELVAGE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Hugh S. Johnson came back to Washington today with a code for the automobile industry and predicted a full measure of success for President Roosevelt's re-employment campaign.

Striking back into the work of directing the recovery movement, the administrator waded through reports from postmasters and commerce department officials throughout the nation before making his prediction. The reports showed that scores of thousands of employees were covered already by blanket agreements promising higher wages and shorter working hours to spread employment.

Loans for Industry

Meanwhile, to the administrator came a pledge from eleven of New York City's largest banks to do their part in expanding credit to finance an increase in trade.

Asserting that objectives of the recovery program "justify all the support that can be given to them by the banks," the letter said:

"Loans made in connection with the industrial recovery program may be likened to seasonal loans. They will be made for the financing of the production of inventory, the liquidation of which the success of the president's plan would insure.

"Such loans should be granted, of course, only where the credit of the borrower justifies it, and such a loan must be considered on its own merits, but all loan applications which pass the ordinary banking requirement should, and undoubtedly will have, sympathetic consideration from banks.

Clubs Boost NRA

The pledge was signed by the Chase National Bank, Guaranty Trust company, Central Hanover Bank and Trust company, First National Bank, Bank of Manhattan, New York Trust company, National City Bank of New York, Bankers Trust company, Irving Trust company, Chemical Bank and Trust company and the Manufacturers Trust company.

The action of the metropolitan institutions was immediately interpreted by officials as the beginning of a general movement throughout the country to make finances available.

More impetus was given the movement by a letter circulated by Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, urging all members not to patronize, as far as possible, establishments "who seek a temporary advantage by failing to sign the president's re-employment agreement."

Intended to direct the 2,000,000 members to stores displaying the "Blue Eagle" insignia of the recovery administration, Mrs. Poole's letter asserted: "To cooperate is to be patriotic."

No official estimates were being made yet by the recovery administration but thousands of employers signing the covenants with President Roosevelt under which they agree to help restore purchasing power pending adoption of more permanent codes for each industry. These reports covered employers giving work to from two to

HENRY FORD, 70,
BIRTHDAY TODAYNo Talk of Retirement,
He Is Still Looking Forward

BY DAVID J. WILKIE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Henry Ford tomorrow will observe his 70th birthday, but there will be no celebration of the occasion and aside from going over the usual great number of congratulatory messages that come to him on his natal day, the automobile manufacturer expects to spend the day quietly with his family at "Fairlane," his estate in Dearborn.

Ford's 70th milestone finds him enjoying unusual good health and as energetic and active as he was a decade ago. A keen eye and quick step testify to the alertness and agility that has been characteristic of Ford throughout his career.

"My preference," he said today, "is to look forward. I have been doing that all my life." In these words he dismissed "retirement" talk.

Ford spent part of today, as he spends every day he is in Dearborn, at his offices in the executive building of the Ford Motor company. He is considering the industrial code that virtually all other automobile manufacturers have agreed upon. He has not yet signed it, but if he does, he will carry out its terms enthusiastically, as he does everything else in which he is interested.

The trouble is, Ford says, that the present code is such that his company would have to live down to it.

Correction House
At Detroit Burns

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—The northeast wing of Detroit's old House of Correction was partially destroyed by a fire which called most of the city's downtown fire fighting apparatus to the scene tonight.

The fire which started in a pile of junk and rubber tires, spread rapidly, and was not brought under control for more than an hour.

The structure has been used as a lodging for unemployed members of the Detroit Federation of Labor. This summer there have been 118 men housed in the building, which, until a year and a half ago, housed some of the city's criminals.

Children Drowned
On Makeshift Raft

Nazareth, Pa., July 29 (AP)—Four children drowned tonight after a makeshift raft overturned in the deep part of the Nazareth Cement company dam, eight miles northeast of Easton.

The children were identified as Mildred Rutt, 12; her brother, Charles, 10; Joseph Winters, 15, and Joseph Scip, 8. All the bodies were recovered.

No one witnessed the tragedy, and the four youngsters were not missed until they failed to show up at home at dark.

TIRES HI-JACKED

Adrian, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Two women and three men were remanded for sentence after pleading guilty in circuit court Saturday to charges of armed assault with intent to commit robbery in connection with the hi-jacking recently of two truck loads of automobile tires. The five are Evelyn Runyon, Louise Haygood, Harry D. Coates, William Fitzgerald and John Fisher, all of Monroe. Life imprisonment is the maximum sentence for the crime.

PRICES FIXED ON MILK SENT INTO CHICAGOAGREEMENT FIRST
UNDER THE NEW FARM ACT

Washington, July 29 (AP)—The first marketing agreement under the farm act—covering the distribution of fluid milk and cream in the Chicago area—was approved today by Secretary Wallace.

It becomes effective Tuesday noon and represents another step in the administration's effort to improve and stabilize farm prices.

More than 100 additional agreements are expected by farm administrators to be negotiated within the next six months, affecting the distribution of milk, vegetables, fruits, eggs, poultry and other important food products.

Bars Price Cutting

The agreement establishes minimum prices to be paid by consumers to producers, wholesalers and retailers and outlaws many competitive trade practices including price-cutting by distributors.

It is exempted from prohibition of the anti-trust laws unless Wallace says otherwise. All distributors will be automatically licensed at the time it goes into effect to assure their observance of its provisions.

A minority of milk interests operating in Chicago opposed many provisions of the agreement, but they will be required to abide by them as well as members of the majority group which submitted the code of competition.

May Revoke Licenses

Licenses of any individual or concern, including processors, wholesalers and distributors, can be revoked at any time that a violation of the agreement is shown. Operation without a license is punishable by a fine of up to $1,000 daily.

Stores distributing milk in the Chicago area will be licensed as well as regular delivery agencies. None will be required to obtain a documentary license, although these will be available at $2 each when a licensing commissioner is appointed at Chicago. This is expected soon.

The commissioner, whose salary and expenses will be paid by the department of agriculture, will investigate complaints from the industry of alleged violations of the agreement and is empowered to order licenses revoked.

May Prosecute Violators

In addition, he will gather evidence for prosecutions in cases where distributors refuse to discontinue violations. Administrators said prosecutions will be handled in the federal courts and will be directed by the office of the United States district attorney.

Increased price schedules which went into effect in Chicago on May 16 were ratified in the agreement, the prices varying by classes and grades.

Administrators estimated the agreement will stabilize the income of about 18,000 dairy farmers in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin supplying milk for the Chicago market. They said the May 16 price schedule increased the return to producers an aggregate of 10 percent.

OFFICER KILLED
GETTING ROBBERSoda Fountain Scuffle
Ends in Death for Two Principals

Kansas City, July 29 (AP)—A robber who lined-up employees of a Kansas City gas company office, took $100, the day's receipts, and then strolled into a nearby drug store for cigarettes and a drink was killed here today by a police sergeant who died getting his man.

Two shots were fired during a soda fountain scuffle when Morris Bigus, the policeman, attempted to arrest a man pointed out by Ray Nichols, grocery employee who had watched the robber leave the gas office and enter the drug store.

The alleged robber, wrestling with the policeman, twisted the officer's gun arm, broken in four places in a recent motor car accident, until a shot from his own weapon gave Bigus his fatal wound. But a second shot killed the other, later said by police to have been identified as William H. Obermeyer.

Bigus died at a hospital. Money equal to the amount taken in the robbery was recovered.

Tong War Threat Heard
in New York Chinatown

New York, July 29 (AP)—Through shabby Chinatown, the fear of another Tong war was spread tonight.

After a member of the On Leong Tong was shot and killed early today, police sent a heavy extra detail into the Mott street section to stamp out any flareup of Tong killings.

Assistant Chief Inspector John J. Sullivan said strife might result among the Chinese from clashes over gambling and narcotics traffic.

The inspector asked department of labor officials to aid in watching the district.

The strange quiet of the Chinatown area was shattered in the early morning hours by pistol shots. Wing Ginn, an On Leong Tong man, tumbled down the rickety stairs of a Doyers street house, six bullets in his body. A Chinese was seen by witnesses to dash down the darkened stair, hurdle his victim and scamper down the street.

Police said the Doyers street building was once used as a headquarters for the On Leong Tong.

The last Tong flareup here was halted after police called in the immigration authorities and threatened widespread deportation proceedings against Chinese unless Tong leaders ordered a halt.

The inspector said he was prepared to do the same thing unless he received assurance from the Tongs that quiet would prevail.

FLORIDA READY
FOR HURRICANELowland Residents Move
In Response to Storm
Warnings

West Palm Beach, Fla., July 29 (AP)—Warned that the tropical storm, now in the Bahamas, apparently has taken a west-northwesterly course and may strike the Florida peninsula tomorrow morning in this vicinity, the populace tonight made careful but calm preparations for eventualities.

By wireless, Governor Dave Sholtz sent the warning into the territory around Lake Okechobee where preparations were made to evacuate approximately 4,200 residents by railroad to higher ground. The people were asked to gather at the railroad sidings late today and not later than early in the morning.

The latest weather bureau advisory from Washington placed the center of the disturbance a short distance west of central Great Okecho Island. "Apparently moving slowly west northwestward attended by shifting gales and by winds of hurricane force over a very small area."

The storm, which was first reported near St. Christopher Island in the Lesser Antilles early in the week, passed Great Abaco this morning, wireless dispatches said, with a maximum wind velocity of 84 miles per hour. No loss of life or severe property damage was reported.

The Washington weather bureau said the storm covered a very small area and, comparatively speaking, was not of alarming intensity. The barometer reading at Great Abaco was 29.6 inches, but the reading here this afternoon was 30.1 and there had been no drop during the day.

Suspect Identified
In Vernon Robbery

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Nick Parisi, held by Detroit police as a suspect in connection with the daylight robbery Friday of the Vernon state bank, today was identified by John Hardy, cashier of the bank, as one of the pair who forced him to open the vault and surrender more than $2,000, according to Lieut. Herman Santel of the Detroit police.

Lieut. Santel said that Hardy also identified a second suspect held by the police as Parisi's companion. Police are seeking the identity of the second man, who refuses to give his name. Efforts to identify him through fingerprinting have proved futile, police said.

Earlier today the two men also were identified by Guy Langdon, a customer who was in the bank during the holdup, police said.

Strike Agitation
Stirs Hollywood

Hollywood, July 29 (AP)—Incipient clashes between striking film technicians and those who refused to go out in the general strike of union workers in the motion picture studios brought a marked tenseness to Hollywood tonight.

Police and private guards about the film studio were increased for duty over the week end. Producers expressed apprehension because of the growing unrest of the striking employees, some of whom have not worked for three weeks.

Precautions were taken to guard developed film.

Heat In Detroit
Kills Man, Girl

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—High temperatures today contributed to the death of a man and a young girl here today. Joseph May, 40, at work in an automobile factory, collapsed and died this afternoon, and Valeria Goryczka, 12, was stricken while at play and died at her home. Both deaths were attributed to heat exhaustion.

Woodin Announces
Baby Bond Issue

Easthampton, Long Island, N. Y., July 29 (AP)—In order to give the public a wider opportunity to participate in the government's recovery program, the United States treasury is planning for next month a $500,000,000 bond issue in denominations as low as $50.

Making this announcement from his home today, William H. Woodin, secretary of the treasury, said the issue "marks a further step in placing government finance on a broader and more stable base."

Resignation Accepted

Laurens, July 29 (AP)—Governor William A. Comstock Saturday accepted the resignation of Mrs. Robert E. O'Brien of Birmingham, as a member of the state liquor control commission.

Mrs. O'Brien in tendering her resignation said it was submitted because she had been unable to bring about the removal of a commission investigator.

SOVIET UNION
SENDS ORDERS
TO U. S. FIRMSGROUP OF EXPERTS
"SHOP AROUND"
IN FACTORIES

BY R. H. HIPPELHEUSER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

New York, July 29 (AP)—Two developments in Russian trade were learned tonight.

1. The U. S. S. R. is sending 41 technicians into the United States within the next few weeks to "shop around."

2. The Soviet union has decided on the purchase of $75,000,000 of industrial equipment for its immediate needs.

The technicians in no sense will serve as purchasing agents for the Soviet "traders." Instead, in their study and inspection of American plants, they will "shop around" for materials best suited to the Soviet needs—and its purse.

Not in two years has the Communist nation sent such a large group of technicians into this country. All of them obtained visas for their passports in Berlin and they will be apportioned in these fields: industrial equipment, aviation design and engines, deep oil well drilling, coke and gas plants, automobiles and cotton.

Tools Needed First

Much of the industrial equipment needed by Russia for immediate use is of a kind supplied in the past, to a great extent, by the Germans. The German government has for several years granted a guarantee on Soviet sales.

To allow American industrialists to meet the German competition, negotiations are underway to obtain aid in long-term financing from the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Within the last few days, these negotiations have centered concretely around an order for rolling mill equipment to the value of $3,000,000 and a $1,000,000 order for tools.

Indications are that both these contracts will be signed shortly. Tools are a prime need in the U. S. S. R., and the million dollar order would be an August shipment.

During the coming week, it was expected, the last of the cotton purchased by Russia, through Reconstruction Finance corporation financing of approximately $4,500,000, will probably be loaded.

Three shiploads are enroute. Two more vessels are loading.

The fact that two of the technicians coming to this country will center their activity in cotton lends credence to reports that a much larger cotton loan soon will be extended by the federal agency.

UNDER $5,000 BOND

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Charged with larceny of $3,764 in cash and city scrip from the Visiting Nurses association offices here, Percy Hudson pleaded guilty in recorder's court Saturday. He waived examination and was ordered held under $5,000 bond for sentence.

CHARTER GIVEN FOR NEW BANK

Payoff to Depositors of Guardian National Expected Soon

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—A federal charter has been forwarded to Detroit for the new Manufacturers National Bank, formed by Edsel B. Ford and associates, sponsors of the institutions were informed in a telegram today from J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency.

Opening of the new bank, now expected to take place within a few weeks, will mark the first step looking toward Detroit's financial rehabilitation. A meeting of the bank's directors was scheduled for Tuesday, when a place of business and a complete list of officers will be chosen. John Ballantyne already has been named to head the new bank as president.

Under the program outlined in Washington by O'Connor and Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the new Manufacturers National will merge four suburban banks with its structure. Ultimately, it is believed, some plan will be shaped providing for the assumption of a part of the assets of the Guardian National Bank of Commerce by the new Manufacturers National.

The new bank will be utilized as an agent for payment of a proposed additional 20 per cent to depositors of the Guardian National. The payoff, having been made possible through the offer of a loan of from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 by the R. F. C.,

FUNDS HURRIED
ON ROAD WORKAdvance Payments Are Available to Start
State Projects

Washington, July 29 (AP)—New plans for accelerating work giving highway expenditures were developed today by the administration as public works chieftains began the study of the upper Mississippi river channel, the Grand Coulee Dam, the Casper-Alcoa reclamation plan and the all American canal projects.

The first three of these big developments with cost estimates aggregating above $200,000,000 have the approval of President Roosevelt. The $33,500,000 all American canal plan for irrigating the Imperial and Coachella valleys in California is receiving special attention from Secretary Ickes, public works administrator.

Money for Payrolls

Public roads officials said national recovery highway projects would not be delayed because of any lack of funds on the part of the states.

O'Connell Release
Anticipated Today

Albany, N. Y., July 29 (AP)—Reports, unsubstantiated in official circles, were freely circulated tonight that John J. O'Connell, Jr., would be released by his kidnapers before Sunday morning.

At several times before there was an air of optimism around the office of District Attorney J. T. Delaney but none of the city or county officials would confirm the rumors.

The uncle of the kidnapped national guard officer, Ed and Dan, political powers update, said they "hope the reports are true." Ed O'Connell is Democratic county chairman and head of the city organization.

O'Connell, 24 years old, was abducted on July 7. His kidnapers demanded a ransom of $250,000.

Michigan Girl and
Pup Hike To Frisco

San Francisco, July 29 (AP)—Having hitch hiked here from Tawas, northern Michigan, with a husky pup for company and only $1 in capital, Anthea De Camp, 18, is visiting her grandfather, J. J. Powell, and planning to matriculate at the University of California.

The girl has supported herself since her mother died four years ago, she said. Her father formerly was professor of forestry at Michigan State college. Her mother, before her death, was a surgical nurse at the Yuba City hospital.

"People were very kind, and gave me lots of rides, and never once did I have any unpleasantness," the girl said. Her luggage—besides the pup—comprised a change of underwear and a frayed bible.

She is going to study to be a veterinarian, she says.

TRUCK HITS TWO

St. Joseph, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Adolph Zedanz, 40, of Detroit, was killed and Samuel Schwartz, 38, also of Detroit, was injured Saturday when struck by a motor truck on U. S. 12 a mile and half south of Union pier. County authorities detained six for questioning.

MINERS WANT
UNION GROUPS
TO TAKE HANDOVER 12,000 MEN
IDLE; MARTIAL
LAW RULES

BY H. FORD WILKINS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Brownsville, Pa., July 29 (AP)—Quiet settled over the strike-torn mining camps of southwestern Pennsylvania tonight as a battalion of national guardsmen bivouaced on a hilltop overlooking one of the nation's greatest soft coal regions.

Sent by Governor Gifford Pinchot to preserve peace in the strike zone, where gunfire wounded five pickets this week, the soldiers detrained late today and marched into camp, their bayonets fixed.

Strikers Meet Train

Major Kenneth W. Monomey, commander of the 325 militia men, conferred briefly with state police at the Uniontown barracks and then proceeded to the camp at West's field, near the village of Thornton, a mile east of Brownsville, to take active charge.

A crowd of 500, including a number of strikers, met the soldiers as they filed from a special train at the Brownsville station. The crowd watched silently as the men formed ranks and the equipment was stowed away in a moving van.

In spite of the presence of guardsmen, Sheriff Harry E. Hackney of Fayette county early tonight had not withdrawn any of his deputies, whose removal was demanded by Governor Pinchot under threat of declaring martial law in the coal fields.

No Shots Fired

Governor Pinchot, directing Major Kenneth W. Monomey to lead the 2nd battalion, 112th infantry, to the mine fields, expressed the hope that "not a single shot will be fired or will need to be fired."

His order authorized military control over the strike zone. Constitutional lawyers said the order had the effect of creating martial law, though the governor avoided use of the term.

Sheriff Hackney disputed the governor's order, and said that he still is the civil authority in Fayette county, and that the troops are subordinate to him. He indicated he will cooperate with the troops if they cooperate with him.

Mather Mine Joins

The coal strike, in which the miners are asking recognition of the United States Mine Workers of America, is the latest of a turbulent series of developments which have encompassed a greater part of Pennsylvania. Strikes have affected the hosiery and textile mills of eastern Pennsylvania, milk producers, glass and silk workers and even the pretzel-making trade. Many disturbances have marked the situation.

No fatalities have been attributed to the strike by police. Early yesterday, two strikers who, a companion said, had been drinking, argued over who had the most "blue blood" in his veins and one of them was shot to death by the other.

The Fayette county strike has spread to mines in adjoining Washington and Greene counties. At the Mather, Pa., mine of the Pickands-Mather company, 500 men joined the movement after 200 strike sympathizers had warned them not to enter the mine.

DEATH CLAIMS LOCAL PIONEER

Mrs. Hilda Holmgren
Resident of Escanaba
Past 42 Years.

Mrs. Hilda C. Holmgren, 69, died at her home, 1113 Ludington street, last night after an illness of several years duration. She had been bedridden since May 23. Death was caused by complication of diseases.

Mrs. Holmgren was born in Kalmarland, Smoland, Sweden, on March 12, 1864. She came to Escanaba in 1890 and had been a resident of this city for the past 42 years. She was a member of the Bethany Lutheran church and a member of the Morning Star society.

Besides her husband, John Holmgren, she is survived by four daughters, Mrs. R. W. Olsen of Chicago, Mrs. Victor Johnson, Escanaba, and Marie and Louise, Escanaba. Two sisters, Mrs. John E. Johnson, Escanaba, and Mrs. Hannah Nelson, Danforth, and one brother, Adolph Peterson, Escanaba, also survive.

The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home for burial preparation. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

World Geologists Visit Peninsula's Iron, Copper Area

Houghton, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Geologists of 15 nations will visit the Lake Superior iron and copper regions on a five day field trip at the conclusion tomorrow of the international geological congress at Washington, D. C.

Among the eminent geologists on the trip will be C. K. Leith, University of Wisconsin, president of the Geological Society of America, Andrew C. Lawson, of the University of California, former geological society president, and J. J. Sederholm, of the University of Helsinki, Finland.

In the Michigan copper district the geologists will visit the museum of the Michigan College and Mining and Technology, one of the most complete in the country. They will inspect the outcrop of the Baltic amygdaloid lode at the Baltic No. 2 shaft of the Copper Range Co., and will examine the mine dumps at No. 1 shaft of the McHawk Mining Co. The mine dump at No. 12 shaft of the Calumet & Hecla Consolidated also will be visited.

On August 1 the party will inspect the Marquette iron range, examining outcrops at Mt. Chocoma, showing the Keweenaw greenish diorite knobs north of Ishpeming will be observed and locations near Negaunee, Jackson open pit, Jasper Hill, the Gogebic Range Tyler slate pits and outcrops. Keweenaw granite, the Palms footwall and the Great Sill, will be visited along with a number of other points of interest in the iron country.

state highway departments to make surveys or initial payments to contractors. Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the bureau, said: "A procedure has been developed under which a state may receive an advance of a part of its apportionment to be used as a revolving fund in connection with the financing of road projects. This decision will speed up work on the roads and assure payrolls for the thousands of unemployed to be called back to work."

"It also appears that because of limitations in state laws some states may be unable to use such funds in connection with surveys and plans for secondary or municipal projects."

"To meet this situation the district engineers of the bureau have been directed to make immediate arrangements for the handling of trust funds in all states where they will be needed. Generally, the custodian of the funds will be the state treasurer who will keep accounts and make reports."

Ikeles said that in his consideration of the upper Mississippi channel, the Columbia basin project and the Casper-Alcoa reclamation development, the public works probably would set aside funds for a year's work and not immediately allot full amounts to cover the entire cost. Latest army estimates placed the cost of the nine-foot channel in the Mississippi from the mouth of the Illinois river to Minneapolis at $122,000,000. The Grand Coulee Dam on the Columbia is figured at $63,000,000 and the Casper-Alcoa plan at $22,700,000.

Accident Is Fatal To Sugar Official

Saginaw, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Funeral services for William H. Wallace, president and general manager of the Michigan Sugar Co., who died early this morning as the result of an automobile accident near Sebawaing on Wednesday, will be held Monday afternoon at the residence here.

The Rev. J. W. Boyer, pastor of the Warren Avenue Presbyterian church where Mr. Wallace was a member will officiate. Burial will take place in Bad Axe cemetery, where a prayer service will be read.

Mr. Wallace had diversified business and manufacturing interests, including banking, grain, stone cutting, timber and fishery concerns, located mostly in Michigan's "thumb" district.

JOHNSON SEES REAL SUCCESS FOR RECOVERY

CODE FOR RETAILERS

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Immediate application of parallel codes of competition for retail trade, under which food dealers' help would work 48 hours and all others except drugs, 40 hours a week, was asked of the recovery administration today by representatives of a majority of retail lines.

Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, took the proposal under advisement and promised an early answer so that the millions of retail establishments throughout the country might use their code terms. If approved, in place of those laid down in the president's voluntary agreement. This procedure has been provided for specifically in the regulations promulgated regarding the temporary agreement.

The food dealers' representatives satisfied Deputy Administrator A. D. Winfield that a 48-hour work week was necessary in groceries and related establishments. He would not, however, give them final word until Johnson himself had approved.

Hours Reduced

No code was brought in today for drug stores, although representatives of the druggists sat in on the conferences. Whiteside expected a definite proposal from them by Monday.

The ones subscribing to the 40-hour plan were the National Retail Dry Goods association, the National Retail Furniture association, the National Retail Hardware association, the Mail Order Association of America, the National Association of Retail Clothiers, and the National Association of Retailers.

The codes proposed were intended to cover labor terms primarily, leaving more involved matters of trade practice regulation for later application.

Several of those taking part in the conferences said wage levels were not in question and indicated that the minimum levels were in close conformity with the $15 to $12 minimums which the blanket agreement prescribes for different cities on the basis of population.

Those represented in the submission of the 40-hour code said their plan would reduce working hours by from 23 to 40 percent and employ at least a million more workers with a three-quarter billion dollar increase in payrolls.

UNDER BLUE EAGLE

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Approximately 2,500 Michigan employers tonight had their signed pledges on file in the Detroit office of the National Recovery Administration and officials predicted the total would be swelled with the first mail deliveries Monday morning.

Twenty thousand pledge blanks have thus far been mailed to firms in the Detroit metropolitan area and additional thousands are to be distributed next week.

Meanwhile in Detroit and other sections of the state plans went forward for an intensive drive to enlist all employers under the insignia of the blue eagle. Committees composed of men and women prominent during the state's wartime Liberty loan drives have been formed and elaborate plans have been made to carry the message of the campaign to every citizen.

Fairgrounds Lease All Settled, Signed

Greenville, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Samuel T. Metzger, commissioner of agriculture said tonight that so far as he is concerned, the leasing of the state fair grounds at Detroit to the Detroit Racing association is a closed incident.

The commissioner characterized the complaints over the lease as those of "disgruntled" groups whose bids were not successful.

Metzger said he had been offered $125,000 by a certain individual to act favorably on the unnamed person's bid. He said he would be willing to reveal the name of the individual before a legislative investigating committee if it called upon to do so.

The group awarded the lease is headed by Peter A. Markey, an official of a Detroit firm. Metzger said that Joseph Murphy, a Chicago race track official, had informed him that he would be connected with the group.

Factories Report June Employment Increase Of 7%

New York, July 29 (AP)—A 7.2 per cent increase in employment during June in factories reporting to the national industrial conference board was announced today.

"If this rate prevailed in all manufacturing industry," the board said, "the 6,139,000 workers computed to be occupied in May, 1933, were reinforced in June by about 442,000 additional workers. Hours of work for old and new workers increased 10 per cent from May to June."

"With practically the same hourly earnings in the two months, the weekly pay envelope contained 19 per cent more in June than it did in May."

In June earnings for an average week of 41.2 hours were reported as $18.49 for skilled and unskilled workers of both sexes. The purchasing power was 95.5 per cent of that of 1923, the board announced.

As early as 1896, the Scottish Parliament passed an act for the maintenance of a school in every parish in connection with kirk.

MISS AMERICA IN SHIP SHAPE

No Definite Word Yet
from Gar Wood's Challenger

BY DAVID J. WILKE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Detroit, July 29 (AP)—If the great mahogany-hulled Miss America X is called upon to defend the Harmsworth trophy here early in September the contest should prove one of the most thrilling in the history of competition for the bronze plaque that symbolizes the powerboat speed supremacy of the world.

Definite assurances that the contest will proceed as planned September 1 to 4 still are lacking because Hubert Scott-Paine, this year's British challenger, has not yet advised the local racing committee that his boat will be ready in time.

Four Engines

Indirectly, however, word has reached here that the British sportsman secretly is developing the most formidable challenger ever to be brought out to compete with Gar Wood. Instead of a single 1350 horse power engine he originally announced would be placed in the hull of the challenger, report has it that he is installing four Napier engines with an aggregate horse power of close to 4,000, which was the top capacity of Miss America X last year.

Wood who has been winning Harmsworth trophy contests and other speedboat races with monotonous regularity for many years, however, has taken no chances upon being caught unprepared. He has virtually rebuilt Miss America X.

The craft, which Wood drove to a record of 124.84 statute miles an hour in a series of one mile trials last summer after successfully defending his Harmsworth title against Kave Don, has been reconstructed with the objectives, as Wood put it today of obtaining "more safety, more durability and more speed." The hull and sides of the world's champion hydroplane have been replaced, the gear box has been rebuilt and the Packard engines have been reconditioned. So, too, have the super-charger and carburetor.

Sides More Rigid

Wood said that one of the things done to the defender from which he expected most gratifying results was the substitution of a laminated wood on the sides of the craft. Placed diagonally, he said, the boat's side walls have been strengthened three to four times over last year, and that through more rigid construction throughout the defender will be able to withstand a "wide open throttle."

Wood indicated a wholesome respect for the skill and prowess of Scott-Paine, who is one of Great Britain's best known speedboat builders. "He is a very good boat builder," Wood said today, "and he can be depended upon to give everything he has in an effort to lift the Harmsworth trophy."

Twenty-two practices were listed as unfair, including misrepresentation of the article sold, payment of any rebate or the making of special inducements to customers to stimulate business, payment of premiums or allowances of discounts to new customers, offering or giving of prizes to employees for obtaining new customers, the giving away of goods without consideration, the hiring of any person as an employee while such person is in the employ of another distributor; the making of special deliveries to retail customers.

Rattlesnake Gift Rejected At Zoo

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Yes, the Belle Isle Zoo does accept donations of animals occasionally, but Lieut. William Snowden, of the harbor-master's division in the Belle Isle office, turned thumbs down today on the offerings of J. A. Bentley, Fenton frog catcher.

When Snowden showed some interest in Bentley's questions, the latter reached into a black bag he had producing one full sized, squinting and very mad rattlesnake. In his struggles with it he dropped the black bag and three more rattlers crawled out.

By the time the bag hit the floor, Lieut. Snowden was on the outside looking in, from which vantage point he directed the capture of the reptiles. Then he returned to make it clear that the zoo would continue in operation but without snakes.

Automobile Kills Bay City Deputy

Bay City, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Otto Kamasche, 22, an employee of the Saginaw county sheriff's department was instantly killed this afternoon when he stepped from a parked truck into the path of a car driven by Gerald White, 17, of Saginaw, on the Bay City-Saginaw River road.

Coroner Henry M. Simon said death was caused by a broken neck. The accident occurred just inside the Saginaw county line, and Bay county officers turned their information over to Saginaw county officials.

Fayette county is the principal source of bituminous coal for the nation's greatest steel center—Pittsburgh. OPEN SHOP BLAMED
Washington, July 29 (AP)—Representatives of organized labor today blamed what they called attempts to thwart the "spirit and letter" of the industrial recovery act for strikes in the western Pennsylvania coal fields.

They said the same attempts were responsible for the open shop clauses in several of the bituminous industry's codes of fair competition.

Secretary Perkins of the labor department, at work on the testimony he planned to give at Monday's hearing on the steel agreement, declined to comment on the strike situation. She said she would have to hear from the two conciliators the department has spent to Pennsylvania before she could discuss the strike.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, said "a campaign by the U. S. Frick Coke company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, among their employees intended to discourage their affiliation with the United Mine Workers of America" was directly responsible for the strife in which one man was killed and a number injured.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, foresaw a dispute over the open shop clause in the code turned in yesterday by operators of non-union mines and said organized labor would oppose the operators' proposal.

ADMIT ARMED ROBBERY

Detroit, July 29 (AP)—Francis Smith and Manuel Lieto were brought here from Monroe Saturday to answer charges of robbery armed, growing out of the hijacking of a truck load of sugar at Toledo and Allen roads, in Wayne county three months ago. They pleaded guilty and were held in $10,000 bond each to await sentence.

FAR STAR GETS $47,000 PURSE

Running Mate of Mata
Hari Wins Futurity
at Arlington

BY CHARLES DUNKLEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Arlington Park, Chicago, July 29 (AP)—The sensational Mata Hari failed to win the $47,000 Arlington futurity today, but she had a little girl friend in the race to courageously come along and save the day for her.

The winner was Far Star, by her performance the best two year old in 1933—at least until a better one comes along. The chestnut daughter of North Star 3rd, Miss Jennina, carrying the silks of Charles T. Fisher of Detroit, and entered as a running mate with Mata Hari, came down the stretch to win the futurity, richest two year old race in the west, with most of the two year olds that triumphed in earlier stakes strung out behind her.

Far Star won by a length and a half with the Calumet Farm's Hadagal, second. Six lengths back in third place came Mrs. John Hay Whitney's highly regarded Singing Wood. In fourth place was Mata Hari, the filly that had been regarded so certain to win she made the Dixiana entry the odds on favorite.

Far Star sprinted the six furlongs in 1:11.1-5, the same time made by Lady-man in winning the 1932 futurity, and brought her owner $31,020. The race had a gross value of $47,020. The Dixiana entry paid $3.38 to win, $2.25 to place, and $2.28 to show. The place price on Hadagal was $6.98 and $3.60 to show, while Singing Wood returned $2.64 to show.

The race, witnessed by 25,000 fans, closed a brilliant thirty day meeting at Arlington Park. On Monday Hawthorne opens for thirty days.

Mata Hari's defeat was her first in four starts. She was highly nervous at the post, causing most of the five minutes delay. When the barrier was sprung, Far Star was away well, just back of Hadagal, which shot into the lead, with

MAKING PLANS FOR LABOR DAY

Trades and Labor Council to Sponsor Celebration

Plans are now being made for the annual observance of Labor Day on Monday, Sept. 4, under the auspices of the Escanaba Trades and Labor Council, it was announced yesterday.

Tentative arrangements are to have a parade in the morning, a public picnic at the park in the afternoon, a dinner in the evening, and a program at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium in the evening.

Various athletic contests will be held at the picnic, and prizes will be awarded to the winners. Eugene Brock, one of the most able labor orators in the country, has been invited to speak at the mass meeting to be held at the auditorium at night. His topic will be: "What the New Deal Means to Labor."

The Escanaba Trades and Labor Council also plans to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Escanaba's incorporation as a city, in connection with the Labor Day observance. The first meeting of the new city council will be dramatized on the auditorium stage.

The general committee in charge of plans for the celebration is composed of: Charles Priester, chairman, John Van Lester, Robert Cass, Howard McKie, Harry Moreau, Alfred Peltier, Lawrence Corcoran, J. F. Corry and Clifford Beaudin.

The finance committee is composed of C. C. Stephenson and Ed Legault. A special sub-committee, composed of Messrs. McKie, Peltier and Moreau, working with a Chamber of Commerce committee, will make the arrangements for the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the city's incorporation.

In good etiquette, announcement of an engagement should be made upon the day that the bride-elect chooses to wear her engagement ring for the first time publicly.

Kiwanis Convention Program Announced

The detailed program of the fifteenth annual convention of the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan district, which will be held in Escanaba August 6 to 8, was announced yesterday by S. R. Wickman, convention chairman.

Sunday, the opening day of the convention, will be featured by a train ride over the Escanaba and Lake Superior, Soo Line, Nahma and Northern railways to a lumber camp of the Bay de Nocquet lumber company, north of Nahma, where a lumberjack supper will be served to the visitors. The general public will be invited to take part in this event.

HE'LL INTRODUCE 'PEIPING MAN'

One might judge from the expression of Dr. A. W. Grabau, that he would be a serious man—and so he is, for this noted scientist, pictured upon his return from China, will introduce the "Peiping Man" of a million years ago to the International Geographic Congress at Washington. The "Peiping Man," of whom Dr. Grabau found traces in fossils near Peiping, is viewed as the "missing link" between the "Pitdown Man" who spread over Europe and the much earlier "Java Ape Man."

Ladies are invited to attend all sessions of the convention—for details refer to general program.

Sunday Afternoon, Aug. 6

Garden, Cow, Pig And Hen Are Aces Of The Depression

Clemson College, S. C. (AP)—A farmer who has a home garden, an orchard, a cow, a sow and a hen together with a field of feed-stuff, is well-fixed, in the opinion of A. E. Schilleter, extension horticulturist.

"He is like a poker player with five aces—he can't lose," Schilleter said, urging farmers of South Carolina to "live at home" during hard times.

Pick Historic Site For New Building

Rome (AP)—A site midway between the ancient Colosseum and the Basilica of St. John Lateran has been chosen for a new building for the foreign ministry.

It is in the heart of the archaeological zone where ruined forums and temples recall the glory of old Rome.

It Duze plans to make it one of the showplaces of the capital.

Approximately 24,000,000 tons of limestone are used annually in the United States, chiefly in the smelting of iron ores.

Whitdale & Gulliver

Whitdale, Mich.—Another pioneer resident of Doyle township has passed on to her reward in the death of Mrs. J. Ring, Monday afternoon. Having lived in the community about forty years, and being a healthy, active woman, always busy, her death is keenly felt by the members of her family and friends, as the large attendance at her funeral Thursday afternoon testified.

A shower was given Wednesday afternoon at the John Rodgers, Sr. home in honor of Mrs. Robert Rice of Calmar, by her mother, Mrs. Rodgers and sister, Mrs. Robert Hudson of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. A very pleasant time was enjoyed.

Among the interesting pleasures was a hand hemming contest, with Mrs. M. Lindberg of Manistique the prize winner; the "posing" for pictures taken, and last but not least, the delicious supper. Mrs. Rice received many pretty and useful gifts. Those present were Mesdames C. Baker, W. Bowman, H. Bowman, William Reid, B. Jack, J. G. Reid, M. Brearley, M. Lindberg, C. MacGregor, B. Davis, L. Klagstad, J. Rodgers, Jr., R. Rice, H. Hudson and Martha Brearley. Mrs. Alexis Nelson sent her gift, being absent, owing to the death of her mother, Mrs. Ring.

Mrs. Robert Hudson and daughter Joyce of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers, Sr.

Mrs. A. Nelson of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., who has been visiting her brother Harvey Lindquist and his children at the A. W. Lundberg home has returned to her home.

H. Lindquist and daughter Louise, Mrs. Wilma MacGregor and son Lewis were visitors at Sault Ste. Marie last Sunday.

Lewis MacGregor's broken arm is improving favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brearley visited Mrs. A. Walker and Beatrice Cameron at the Laing hospital at Escanaba last week.

Mrs. Ted Caffey and two children have returned to their home in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Frank Cameron is a patient at the Shaw hospital in Ministique, being treated for infection in one of his fingers.

STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!

— neither strong enough,
nor safe enough, nor quiet enough for the body of a quality car
like CHEVROLET

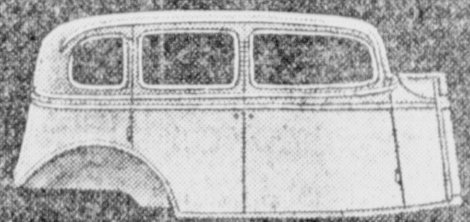

There is only one type of body construction which Chevrolet will permit on the chassis of the cars it builds: That's the type which every test—and every experiment—and every experience has proved to be the safest, strongest, and best. Not steel alone, because steel alone is not enough. But a Fisher body of steel reinforced by hardwood! The same kind of construction used on practically all the highest-priced cars in America.

Chevrolet well knows that steel alone has one distinct advantage: it's cheaper. Steel also is strong—up to a certain point. BUT—beyond that point, steel alone will bend and crumple under severe stress or shock. It takes the strength and supporting solidity of a hardwood reinforcement to give you the full protection and full satisfaction you want in a motor car body today.

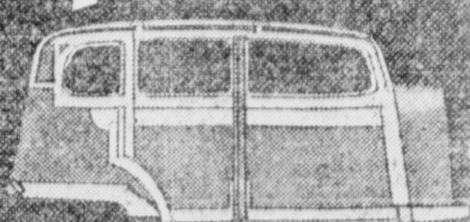

If you're thinking of buying a new low-priced car, better watch this matter of bodies, and watch it carefully. Insist on steel reinforced by hardwood! Fortunately, the only low-priced car with this preferred type of body is also the only car with a proven valve-in-head six; with Fisher Ventilation; Cushion-Balanced Power; a Starterator. That car is Chevrolet—America's most economical automobile.

FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE

MEMBERS of the State Sanatorium Commission have announced that all objectives of that organization have been centered upon obtaining federal funds, under the public works act, for the construction of a tuberculosis sanatorium in the northern section of the lower peninsula. The need for such an institution, for the convenience of tuberculosis sufferers in that section of the state, is not denied but the proposed institution has been made a political football for a number of years and the present opportunity when funds made available under the national recovery act can be secured for such an institution, should be seized.

The fact that tuberculosis sanatorium officials are accepting present conditions for obtaining a long needed institution in the northern part of the lower peninsula, should encourage members of the board of trustees of the three county owned sanatorium at Powers, to take steps to secure funds for a long and desperately needed addition to Pinecrest sanatorium. The present sanatorium has been so over-crowded that for years it has had an extensive list of waiting patients, whom the institution could not accommodate even from the three supporting counties. The counties of Menominee, Dickinson and Delta are wholly unable to furnish additional funds to provide the badly needed addition and in the meantime tuberculosis sufferers of these counties are being denied the treatment to which they should be entitled. In addition, if such an addition could be made large enough, it could be made, it is believed, self supporting by pay patients from other counties and sections where sanatorium facilities are not provided.

If it is possible to secure federal funds for the construction of a sanatorium in the northern section of the lower peninsula, it should be possible to secure funds for a desperately needed addition at Pinecrest sanatorium.

laws for submission to the general membership.

But when it comes to defending all of the acts of the present legislature, Speaker Bradley has undertaken a big job. For instance, no matter how great were the necessity for a sales tax for Michigan, because of the adoption of the fifteen mill property tax amendment, Mr. Bradley faces a man's size job in justifying that tax in the minds of a lot of people of even his home county of Menominee.

NOT ALL IN RECORD

JUST WHAT constitutes the fly in the ointment that caused Mrs. Robert E. O'Brien, of Birmingham, to resign as a member of the Michigan state liquor commission, was probably not made public in the formal announcement of her resignation. On the face of the announcement the Birmingham member complained that an inspector who raided a beer tavern, where it is alleged that stronger intoxicants were sold, was not permanently dropped from the force. Mrs. O'Brien will not get far in the eyes of the public in proving her grounds for resignation with such a claim. Public opinion would rather back the position of the commission in its action in retaining the inspector complained of, for if the commission is to justify itself, it must cooperate in every possible way in preventing legal beer taverns from becoming just plain blind pigs.

If the reason given by Mrs. O'Brien for her resignation is the real reason back of her act, it is probably just as well she is off the commission.

PROTECTING HOME OWNERS

THE Home Owners Loan Corporation has acted with commendable promptness to nip a "rocket" through which it was said unscrupulous persons planned to profit at the expense of mortgage-burdened home owners.

Prospective borrowers, the board stated, do not need paid agents to negotiate their loans. Preliminary appraisals of property will be made without cost, and if the loan is granted, the subsequent appraisal and examination of title will be made at a nominal cost.

And the board warned of provisions in the law under which persons making unjustifiable and unnecessary charges in connection with loans can be punished by a maximum fine of $10,000 and five years in prison.

BUSINESS IS BETTER

FIGURES from Washington tell a reassuring story of the extent of the pickup in business.

Activity in June and early July was 89 per cent of the 1923-25 average, an increase of 12 per cent over May, and 33 per cent over July of last year. Output of steel, automobiles, shoes, textiles, and many other products increased.

The American Federation of Labor estimates that 1,500,000 persons have found jobs since March. This is a distinct gain, but labor officials point out that 11,500,000 persons still are without work. Success of present efforts of NRA would mean that 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 of these would be employed by September.

There are indications that production is running ahead of consumption, since department store sales in June receded 1 per cent. An appreciable increase in employment would stimulate mass buying power.

Conditions still remain far from normal and the country is by no means out of the woods. But the curve is swinging upward.

MOTHERLOVE

How rich the babe that, in his mother's arms,
First learns what love is by such love receiving!
For it shall learn, amidst a life's alarms,
That such a love is love beyond believing.
The motherlove alone asks naught returning,
Asks but to love till life is old and gray.
Keeps still in windowed soul the beacon burning,
Until the straying feet no more shall stray.

Oh, most unselfish of the loves of earth,
The motherlove alone asks naught but giving;
It loves through all the travail of our birth,
It loves through all the weariness of living.
Upon our lives its sunshine falls benignly,
As rich as God's affection from above—
For God Himself loves never more divinely
The sons of men than these, our Mothers, love.

CHAPTER XLII

Barrett said slowly, "Suppose we sit down and talk this over? Just what has your mother told you?"

Elinor had dropped to the foot of the chaise longue. Hands clasped on her knees, she looked like a frightened child on the verge of tears. Barrett drew a chair near and sat down, leaning toward her.

He looked so big and strong, yet gentle, she thought. Always he had been gentle. But he had been cruel, too, and unfair to her. He had chided though she had given him a heart filled with truth and eager response to his love.

"Mother told me that—that you have an adopted son at the home of a widow who lives in the country. And that the child looks like you. Why haven't you ever told me? Why did you adopt him, Barrett?"

"I can't tell you that," he heard himself answer in a dull monotone.

"Don't you think I should have known?"

"I don't know," he answered, still dully.

"I told you everything that mattered, Barrett!"

"When the affair involves a woman—a man cannot always tell everything," he stated.

Her cheeks burned with anger roused by a sharp flame of jealousy. So he was still sheltering this woman who had come before her!

"You admit you are sheltering some woman?" she asked.

Yes, Elinor. His eyes troubled her. He was suffering. Even through her own pain she saw that.

"You knew her—before you knew me?"

"Yes, dear—"

"Long—before?"

"Years."

"You were very young—?"

"Yes, and I haven't felt young since except at those times when you have shown me that you cared for me."

"Please!" she begged, shrinking.

He dropped his face to his hands, groaned and then sat erect, shifting uneasily in his chair. Then again, forarms on his knees, he sat forward but did not meet her eyes. Instead he looked down at the rug at his feet. If he looked at her he knew he might easily blurt out the whole story.

"I wish you could believe," he said slowly and miserably, "that things are not always as they seem, dear—that I love you truly and as you should be loved, that I would never hurt you willingly. It's—it's killing me not to explain."

"And yet you can't because of some woman?" she questioned.

He drew a deep breath that did nothing to aerate his sudden lungs. "No," he answered flatly.

They sat for some moments, he looking down at the rug and she at him. She had been so certain, so pitifully and youthfully certain, that she had reached Utopia, she realized. And now she was learning that the man she had been so proud to call her husband, was of the same mold as the rest.

"Please go!" she said. "I'd rather be alone. I want to think it all through—"

Of course there was no thinking it through. She could only tell herself that she had been a fool to expect more. What had she seen in life but a life but the same story, written with varying degrees of sordidness over and over again?

One thing she knew, growing hot from resentment, and that was this child had a right to have a place near his father, to have all he would have had with a different birth. Her thoughts veered. For a while she forgot the boy—Barrett's boy. How she had loved Barrett and how frankly she had let him know it! Doubtless she trembled at the thought he had compared her caresses with others.

whistling and a course broom rustled on the pavement.

Elinor heard Barrett moving about at four and through the crack below the door she saw a light which continued to burn as long as her eyes were open. When the first of day turned windows to oblongs of slate-gray she slept. She woke to hear rain and to see the somber light that comes with a steady downpour.

She dressed awkwardly, feeling the shortness of the night and her new misery.

Barrett was at the breakfast table when she appeared. Higgins was in the room and Barrett arose, greeting her as usual with a kiss.

"I didn't expect you down," he said. "I was afraid you hadn't slept well."

"I didn't. You didn't sleep well either, did you?"

"No, dear," Higgins was gone now so that the "dear" was not a pretense.

She saw that he could not eat and the mere thought of food nauseated her.

"What will we do?" she asked. "It's horrible for both of us!"

"God knows!" he answered hollowly.

"Barrett, I want to talk to you when you have the time—"

"Any time you say," he answered.

After breakfast then. In the library?

"If you like," he agreed. But what, he wondered, was there to be said? He pushed aside his plate and rose as she was rising.

The library windows opened on a little square of court. Elinor sat down before one of the open windows and Barrett drew a chair close, facing hers. But Elinor did not begin. She, too, was waiting.

"Of course," he said slowly. "You can have a divorce."

He saw the intensifying pain in her eyes and his heart warmed. He went on eagerly, "I suppose you'd want that. Is there any chance that you don't?"

"No," she told him. "Not now. I wouldn't want people to know, for one thing. Besides I am as happy here as I could be anywhere. If you don't mind, I'd rather just stay on until you don't want me—"

"But, Elinor, that will make— life imprisonment in this house for you. I'll always want you here. I don't see how I could let you go. I can't even imagine life without you, dear!"

He was looking down at his hands which he twisted. She wanted to lay a hand upon his arm and say, "What is the matter with us? We love each other. Why must we make each other so miserable?"

But she could not; she could not.

"What do you want?" Barrett asked slowly, raising his eyes to meet hers.

"I think I'd like to go somewhere in the country and try to make a home for that child," she answered. "Your adopted son. It isn't right for him to be kept away like that."

"Very well."

For a space they were both silent; then he spoke. "I have a chance to go with an expedition

"We do not sell
"Talking Points."

*Henry Ford
Dearborn, Mich.*

When customers write in, as many are doing these days, stating that they have found the Ford V-8 better than we said it was, that is how we prefer it to be.

I say this for the benefit of a Ford dealer who chides me for not claiming all that might be claimed in favor of our car.

If the people who use our cars every day are not praising them, it matters little what we may say. The last word must be spoken by the car itself, and the owner who tells his next door neighbor how his car behaves in actual service is the only effective advertiser.

That is why we do not stress "talking points" in our car. The Ford V-8 is built on principles, not on "points." Most of the "talking points" in motor cars are of little or no importance to the performance or value of the car.

Take weight, for example. It is not just a "talking point" with us; it is a basic principle which we keep constantly in mind when we design a car. Weight has much to do with the cost of the car. It costs us money to remove excess weight. It costs you money if we leave it in.

When people talk about the cost of running a car—or, to put it in advertising language, "economy of operation"—why do they not give more thought to weight?

The more dead weight a car drags around, the more it costs to run. To carry passengers costs very little. It is car weight that runs up the gas bills. If we design an economical engine, and then waste the economy in moving a mass of unnecessary car weight, what has been gained?

By keeping weight where it belongs—as trainers do with a race-horse or an athlete—the horse-power per pound of car remains high. To get the most miles and most power out of a gallon of gas, a car should not be over-heavy for its purpose. A quick, responsive pick-up and reserve speed—which means reserve power—requires careful attention to car-weight and strength.

The Ford V-8 is not a light car—it is as heavy as its design requires, and much stronger than it need be for safety. But it has no useless weight. Strength has been obtained without dead heavy bulk.

What we offer is a car, built to do certain things, and sure to do them.

Text of President's Voluntary Agreement

To Every Employer:

1. This agreement is part of a nation-wide plan to raise wages, create employment, and thus increase purchasing power and restore business. That plan depends wholly on united action by all employers. For this reason I ask you, as an employer, to do your part by signing.

2. If it turns out that the general agreement bears unfairly on any group of employers they can have that straightened out by presenting promptly their proposed Code of Fair Competition.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
The White House, July 27, 1933.

PRESIDENT'S REEMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

(Authorized by Section 4a National Industrial Recovery Act)
During the period of the President's emergency reemployment drive, that is to say, from August 1, 1933, to December 31, 1933, or to any earlier date of approval of a Code of Fair Competition to which he is subject, the undersigned hereby agrees with the President as follows:

(1) After August 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 16 years of age, except that persons between 14 and 16 may be employed (but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries) for not to exceed 3 hours per day and those hours between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. in such work as will not interfere with hours of day school.

(2) Not to work any accounting, clerical, banking, office, service, or sales employees (except outside salesmen) in any store, office, department, establishment, or public utility, or on any automotive or horse-drawn passenger, express, delivery, or freight service, or in any other place or manner, for more than 40 hours in any 1 week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any 1 week, unless such hours were less than 52 hours per week before July 1, 1933, and in the latter case not to reduce such hours at any time.

(3) Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1933, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any 6 weeks within this period, and not to employ any worker more than 8 hours in any 1 day.

(4) The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession; nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 Federal census.

(5) Not to pay any of the classes of employees mentioned in paragraph (2) less than $15 per week in any city of over 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; and in towns of less than 2,500 population to increase all wages by not less than 20 percent, provided that this shall not require wages in excess of $12 per week.

(6) Not to pay any employee of the classes mentioned in paragraph (3) less than 40 cents per hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents per hour, in which latter case not to pay less than the hourly rate on July 15, 1929, and in no event less than 30 cents per hour. It is agreed that this paragraph establishes a guaranteed minimum rate of pay regardless of whether the employee is compensated on the basis of a time rate or on a piecework performance.

(7) Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages hereby agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable readjustment of all pay schedules.

(8) Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this agreement which is, among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant, to remove obstructions to commerce, and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis.

(9) Not to increase the price of any merchandise sold after the date hereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement, or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such price increases, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

(10) To support and patronize establishments which also have signed this agreement and are listed as members of N. R. A. (National Recovery Administration).

(11) To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a Code of Fair Competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date, and in any event before September 1, 1933.

(12) Where, before June 16, 1933, the undersigned will make an appropriate adjustment of said fixed price to meet any increase in cost caused by the seller having signed this President's Reemployment Agreement or having become bound by any Code of Fair Competition approved by the President.

(13) This agreement shall cease upon approval by the President of a code to which the undersigned is subject, or, if the N. R. A. so elects, upon submission of a code to which the undersigned is subject and substitution of any of its provisions for any of the terms of this agreement.

GARDEN NEWS

Mrs. Charles Hetzger, Mrs. Fred St. Peter, Mrs. Martha Snyder and Miss Annie Watry, all of Port Washington, Wis., left Wednesday for their homes after spending two days as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haas of Kates Bay. Margaret Haas who has spent part of her summer home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haas, returned Wednesday to the home of her parents at Isabella.

Herman Haas is very sick again at his home at Kates Bay. He has been in failing health for several months past.

Katherine McNally who has been camping on Parker's Bay with a group of friends, reports that she saw a large bear on the road not far from the camp.

Miss Evelyn Johnson of Escanaba is visiting friends in Garden. Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley Greene of Chicago left here Thursday after spending a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hornstein. Mr. Greene is city editor of the Chicago Illustrated Times. He visited in Marquette before returning to Chicago.

Charleton Meredith left here Friday after spending the greater part of the week as guest at the Congressional parsonage.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Harry Hennessey who recently underwent a serious operation in an Escanaba hospital is improving as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Wesley Gray of Joseph Deloria, Sr., were present at the funeral of the late Orville Morrison of Isabella Thursday afternoon.

Molly McNally spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Finley McCasum of Puffy Creek. The harvest of wild raspberries has commenced. While it is believed that the long drought has damaged the crop, rain came in time to assure a reasonably good supply of nice fruit. The earliest of the blackberries were badly drying out but the prospect for this fruit is much better than a few days ago.

The young people of the village are taking advantage of these pleasant summer evenings and are spending much time on the tennis courts at the high school.

Frank G. Tebo and daughter Jean have returned from Green Bay where they spent the greater part of their summer vacation.

CITY CUTS LIGHT RATES
Hamilton, O. (AP)—Customers of the Hamilton city-owned light plant are becoming accustomed to regular reductions in their electric bills since the city adopted the city manager form of government in 1929. When a reduction of from 21 to 50 per cent went into effect in July this year it was the fifth cut in four years.

PARISIAN!

(From Best and Co., New York)
Black satin is the latest formal daytime material. If you want to have that "Oh so-Parisian" look, then get a black satin dress. This is a particularly charming afternoon outfit, because with a short-sleeved black satin dress, black kid T-strapped sandals are worn. They have the same soft luster of good velvet. The wide-brimmed hat, of a loosely woven black straw, has the restrained luster to complement the costume perfectly.

OBITUARY

VIVIAN STASEWICH
Vivian Stasewich, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stasewich, 1300 Sheridan Road, followed her twin sister in death Saturday, passing away at the family home at one o'clock in the morning.

Whooping cough, which a few days ago claimed the life of Lilian Joyce, one of the twins born April 26, was the cause of Vivian's death.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Alto Funeral Home, Rev. William Lutz of the Salem Evangelical Lutheran church officiating. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery.

The parents and a sister, Lucia, age 20 months, survive.

MRS. JULIA RICHARD
Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 2 o'clock at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Fr. John Mockler officiating, for Mrs. Julia Richard, resident of this community for the past fifty years, who died Wednesday.

The body was taken to Schaffer at the close of the services where burial was made in Schaffer cemetery. Pallbearers were Joseph Pital, John Ettenhofer, Peter Blake, Sr., Peter J. Blake, Henry Kasten and Harry Perras.

Out-of-town relatives at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richard and Mr. and Mrs. John Richard of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richard and Mr. and Mrs. J. Korten of Iron Mountain.

MRS. JULIA B. MOORE
Funeral services, which were largely attended, were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for Mrs. Julia B. Moore, well known resident of Escanaba.

The services at which Rev. Carl E. Berger of the First Presbyterian church officiating, were held in the flower banked room in which the body lay, at the home of her son, H. W. Moore, 417 Stephenson avenue. During the services Rev. Mr. Berger and C. Arthur Anderson sang a duet, "Of Safe to the Rock that is Higher Than I," and Mr. Anderson sang a solo, "The Christian's Goodnight." Willard Clark played the accompaniments.

At the close of the services the body was taken to Lakeview cemetery where burial was made.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who formed an honorary escort, were Mrs. Barbara O'Donnell, Mrs. Nellie Valind, Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt, Mrs. Jennie Longtime, Mrs. Anna Molloy and Mrs. Minnie Harwood. Active pallbearers were Herman Kinney of Gladstone, Emil Elingsen, C. T. Woolpert, James Smith, Hal Rende and Edward Olson.

Out-of-town relatives at the services were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fitch and son, Melvin of Manistique and Claude Moore, a son, of Gary, Ind.

POWER EMPIRE LONG A DREAM

Engineers Vision Tennessee Valley as "American Ruhr"

Atlanta (AP)—Ambitious plans for the energizing of the valley of the Tennessee into a teeming "American Ruhr" are shot through with modern magic—the magic of hydroelectric energy making 200,000 new jobs.

The mammoth experiment that President-elect Roosevelt will propose to congress makes more concrete the prospect that has dazzled engineering minds with its possibilities for a quarter of a century.

$1,200,000,000 Project
It was Major Gen. Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, a Tennesseean, who estimated that the ultimate power development of the river would cost $1,200,000,000 and produce 3,000,000,000 kilowatts of power at a low record cost of 4-5 mills.

Conservation of the natural resources of the Tennessee river system will return billions of dollars to America, say engineers who have surveyed its possibilities, not alone for power but for general development of an area rich in minerals, timber and agricultural possibilities.

The great engineering development, which includes Muscle Shoals, would when completed comprise the greatest interconnected system of power plants in the world and also form an inland navigation route.

Thirty Dams Projected
Major Robert R. Neyland, district engineer, says the ultimate system, which will include more than 30 dams and 11 power plants, will have a generating capacity of 3,315,339 horsepower.

The navigation channel, stretching 650 miles from the mouth of the river at Paducah, Ky., to Knoxville, Tenn., high up in the mountains, will open economical transportation facilities for the industrial development that will naturally follow.

The area is admirably suited to reforestation projects, which the President-elect names as the first item in his program.

A survey for the Cove creek reservoir project, at which point Mr. Roosevelt would begin the flood control phase of his program, has already been completed.

Three rows of closely spaced holes cross the Clinch river and extend up its shores to a level of 250 feet above the bed of the stream.

They mark the site of the proposed Cove creek dam, 20 miles northwest of Knoxville, and near the source of the Tennessee river.

The Cove creek project is designed to impound water when the Tennessee is high and to release this water when the stream is low. In this way the prime power output at Wilson dam in Alabama could be more than doubled.

Mr. Roosevelt lists as a possibility the reclamation of fertile bottom lands for agricultural use and the elimination of unprofitable marginal lands from farm pursuits.

To Build Planning Mill

Ironwood—Construction of a planning mill and dry kiln on the company's property at Bessemer will be undertaken within a few weeks by the Underwood Veneer Co., said O. J. Swanson of Wausau, assistant general manager, on his weekly visit to the range.

The planning mill, dry kiln and equipment will cost $50,000, it is estimated.

Miss Lorensen
Becomes Bride Of Willmer O. Larsen

Miss Pearl S. Lorensen of Stonington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lorensen, became the bride of Willmer O. Larsen of Stonington at a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Swedish Lutheran church of Gladstone, Rev. C. E. Olsson, pastor, officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn, and Clayton Jensen, a nephew of the bridegroom, was his attendant.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white satin with Spanish all-over lace, and with it veil of tulle, and slippers and gloves of white. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses, orchids and baby breath. Her bridesmaid wore a gown of white crepe with slippers and gloves of white and she carried an arm bouquet of roses and orchids.

A wedding dinner was served at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents to sixty guests. Pink and white were the colors of the home decorations which were attractively carried out in streamers arranged with roses, garden flowers and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen left later in the day on a honeymoon trip, motoring by way of the Straits of Mackinac, to Battle Creek. They will go from Battle Creek to Goshen, Ind., to visit with Miss Pearl Jensen, and later will attend A Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago and will also visit in Milwaukee. They will make their home in Stonington.

The bride's going-away costume was a suit of green travel tweed with which she wore blonde slippers, hat and gloves.

Guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. M. Johnson of Calumet; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wohl of Iron Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Clark and Roy Estenson, Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen and daughter, Ethel, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Tumath and daughter, Lois May, of Gladstone.

Today's Recipe

A method of cold packing carrots which keeps them fresh and firm during winter months was received Saturday through the courtesy of Mrs. Ed DeMars, of 505 South Fifteenth street, who cold packs a variety of fresh vegetables in this way.

Cold Packing Carrots

Wash thoroughly, using vegetable brush. Scald in hot water long enough to loosen skin and then dip quickly in cold water. Scrape or pare to remove skin. Pack whole, sliced or cross sectioned in hot jars and fill jars with boiling water. Add one teaspoon salt to each quart. Boil from 20 to 30 minutes. A waterless cooker may be used or if a large quantity is being prepared, a larger container.

Muffins (10)
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons fat, melted
Mix ingredients and beat 1 minute. Fill greased muffin pans and bake 15 minutes in moderate oven. Serve warm with butter.

Mission Meetings
Closing Today

Mission meetings, which have been in progress during the week at the Swedish Methodist church of Bark River, Rev. Clifford Lindberg, pastor, will close today. There will be two services, one at 11 o'clock this morning, and the closing meeting at 8 o'clock tonight.

Rev. Karl J. Hammar of the Swedish Methodist church of this city, who has been preaching at the services, will deliver the sermons at both meetings today.

Have no feeling for your ice-box when the days are hot. Make it work overtime!
When summer sends the temperature skyrocketing, it's a wise hostess who studies up on short cuts and gives her ice-box the burden of preparations of all sorts of hot weather dishes.

The best time to prepare food is in the morning before the house gets unbearably hot. Try to choose recipes which can be made with a minimum of effort early in the day. Then put them in the ice-box until lunch or dinner time.

The ice-box is doubly handy when it comes to mid-summer desserts. Leave pies, cakes and things which have to be baked in the oven until the days are cooler.

Your guests will appreciate your menu twice as much if they know that you aren't completely worn out with the preparation of it.

Simple desserts are your best bets. They cause you less trouble to make and at the same time, provide ample nourishment without being hard to digest.

A raspberry ice-box cake is a favorite party treat for the family these hot days. It is extremely simple to prepare and it also very economical.

Here's the way you make a delicious raspberry ice-box dessert. Stir together one and one-third cups (one can) of sweetened condensed milk and three tablespoons of lemon juice until the mixture thickens. You can use a fork instead of a spoon to hasten the thickening, thus saving you an extra few minutes in the kitchen.

Fold in one cup of fresh raspberries. Line a mold with wax paper and then with split lady fingers, placing the round side out. Pour in the raspberry mixture and top with a layer of lady fingers. That's all you have to do. Just set the pan in the coldest part of your ice-box for several hours.

When you are ready to serve dessert, take it out of the pan, slice and garnish with whipped cream. This recipe serves eight.

You don't have to worry about the condensed milk and lemon juice thickening. The trick of using condensed milk is that the milk and sugar already have been boiled down to perfect smoothness and it will thicken with very little effort on your part.

Four other meets, boys' junior and senior singles, and girls' junior and senior singles, have been held and the senior tournaments are yet to be completed. There is a possibility that the finals in these two events may be held this week-end.

Junior doubles play will begin tomorrow when all first round matches are scheduled to be played, and there will be eight teams contesting for the title. Semi-finals and finals will be on Tuesday.

Following are the pairings and time of matches as announced by Co-director Kegel:

Swan and Kee vs. Fitzpatrick and J. Cannon, 9:30 a. m.

Ackley and Roland vs. Ottenhoff and Legault, 10:30 a. m.

Foster and Maynard vs. Simpson and P. Cannon, 1:30 p. m.

LaPine and D'Amour vs. Wilmette and Hawkinson, 2:30 p. m.

Senior Pairings
Competition for the senior doubles title will begin on Wednesday with six teams entered. There will be two first round matches. These and one of the semi-finals matches will be played Wednesday. The semi-final of the lower bracket will be played Thursday and the finals on Friday, according to the meet play.

The opening match will be between the team of T. Murray and Jadin and H. Rouman and John McGlyn at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday. Damitz and Mathison, who received a bye in the first round will play the winners of the first match at 3:30 in the afternoon of the same day. Germaine and King are scheduled to play Skellenger and R. Murray at 7 o'clock that evening and Peterson and Froman, who received a bye in the opening round will meet the winners of the above match on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The finals will be played on Friday evening.

THEATRES

Eddie Cantor, in "The Kid from Spain," began its engagement at the Rialto Theatre yesterday. It is Samuel Goldwyn's annual presentation of Cantor song-and-dance, following last year's "Palmy Days" and "Whoopie" the year before.

In "The Kid from Spain," Eddie Cantor, out, neither bravely nor willingly, to show his skill and grace as a matador. Escaped from the police who are pursuing him, protection from the Mexican thugs about to put him on the spot, the adoring eyes of the elongated blonde sex menace, and solving his roommate's difficult love affairs are all among the reasons that bolt Eddie into the arena in the thrilling, colorful climax to the story.

Songs that you will have trouble escaping if they are worth a mile to heart, the smiling faces and the graceful beauty of a hundred girls, spirited dances and color and glamour and excitement are all ingredients of this big production.

Buckeyes, Swedes
Setting Pace In
2nd Half Season

The Buckeyes, winners of the first half, and the Swedes were deadlocked for pace-setting honors in the second half at the conclusion of this week's play in the Gladstone diamond ball league. Each aggregation has scored four victories while keeping their defeat column unmarred. Marble Arms is in second position, while the Veneers, one of the strong teams earlier in the season, has slumped and is now reposing next to the cellar.

League standings:
TEAM W. L. PCT.
O&H Swedes 4 0 1.000
Buckeyes 4 0 1.000
Marbles 2 1 .667
Empsons 2 2 .500

Tuesday—
Veneers vs. Hupys.
Wednesday—
Empsons vs. Marble Arms.
Thursday—
Liermans vs. Buckeyes.
Friday—
Marble Arms vs. Liermans, in makeup game.

BUCKEYES WIN
The Five and Dimes threw a scare into the league leading Buckeyes Friday evening in a makeup game, but the latter finally came through to victory, 9 to 5.

The winners had their big inning in the third when they scored five runs. The fireworks were started by a muffed fly ball with two down and four consecutive hits followed to bring in the tallies.

Rallying in the fourth the Five & Dimes scored four runs on four hits and an error, but the Buckeyes came back in the same inning to push two more men across the platter and sew up the game.

Cole of the losers fanned four and walked two while Switzer whiffed one and passed one. Cassell, Dime center fielder, starred at bat and in the field for the losers.

Score by innings:
5 & 10 000 410 0—5 9 2
Buckeyes 015 210 x 9 12 1
Batteries: Cole and Laidlaw; Switzer and Boyin.
Umpires: Brock and Haglund.

Stores In Newberry Back NRA Campaign

Newberry, July 29 (Special)—Newberry merchants will be called together on Monday by P. S. Kelson, president of the village, to discuss ways and means of cooperating with President Roosevelt's recovery program. Several of the employers have received copies of the blanket code and the rest expect to have them today or Monday. Merchants expect to be able to announce the changed hours and wage rates by August 1.

Several merchants were interviewed and all express themselves willing and anxious to cooperate. "We expect to be in full cooperation with the president's plan," one of them stated. "We will certainly give the plan a real trial," another reported. The man who employs a dozen or 20 persons appears more willing to accept control of hours and wages than the merchant with two or three, these men explained. However, they believe that the Monday meeting will iron out any misunderstandings which have arisen.

In two of the stores already additional clerks have been taken on. This has been done for three reasons. First, business has already shown an increase making it necessary for increased staffs. Second, merchants are anticipating the new program and they also want to pick up reliable help. The Monday meeting will be held in the community building.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Spencer M. Ennis will be the new employee of the E. P. Bohn and Company insurance, according to the announcement. Dr. E. P. Bohn, Mr. Ennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ennis of this place, his father being the superintendent of the Horner Flooring company. He is at present employed in Traverse City, and came to Newberry on Friday to consult with the insurance company officials, and is expected to take over his new duties some time next week. He succeeds A. A. Mattson who will no longer be connected with the company.

Verne McGregor Dies At Gaylord

Verne McGregor, aged 53, died at the home of his brother Roy in Gaylord on July 26 following an illness of several months. The body arrived in Newberry on Friday noon and was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards on Saturday. Funeral plans await the arrival of Mrs. McGregor and a son and daughter.

Ezra Verne McGregor was born in Manistique on May 13, 1880, son of Douglas and Eunice (Worren) McGregor and attended school in that city. He married Miss Eva Edwards about 30 years ago in Manistique. Mrs. McGregor and two children survive him, Floyd living in Boston and Beatrice in Detroit.

Besides these his aged father, nine brothers and sister mourn his passing. All of these with the exception of Charles who lives in Saskatchewan will be here for the funeral services. Roy lives in Gaylord, Lloyd in Mancelona, Viola, is Mrs. David Riddell of Newberry. Mildred is Mrs. Fred Collins, Caroline is Mrs. Dwyer, Darling, Ruby is Mrs. Joseph Ichenberg all three living in California. Leona is Mrs. Richard White of Iron Mountain. A sister, Margaret, Mrs. George Edwards, died in 1927, being the first of this large pioneer family to pass away. Until his health failed Mr. McGregor was an insurance and bond salesman in Madison and Chicago. He was well known throughout the peninsula and has spent much time in Newberry for the past year.

All of the relatives are expected to arrive in Newberry by Saturday night after which funeral plans will be announced. The father, Douglas McGregor, who is 85 years of age, arrived here from his home near Manistique Saturday afternoon, brought over by his grandson Melvin Edwards.

COUNTY CLUB LUNCHEON

The Ladies of the Newberry County Club will give a luncheon at the club house on Thursday noon. A flag tournament will be played by those interested in golf and bridge will furnish the diversion for the others. Members of the committee are Mesdames Bystrom, Redwine, Selbert, Lott and Miss Westin.

NEWBERRY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Horner of Houghton are visiting at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zagelmeier on Manistique lake.

Twin sons were born on July 22 to Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent. They have been named Willard Anthony and Wilbur David. Mother and babies are doing well.

A golf tournament will be played at the Newberry course on Sunday between local and St. Ignace players. Professional Newcombe reports that the St. Ignace set had not been furnished on Saturday morning and that the schedule would not be announced until just before the play started. About 15 guests are expected from the Straits city.

Cowpland Appointed

Marquette—Appointment of Elliott M. Cowpland, of Ishpeming, as chief clerk at the Marquette branch prison to succeed Harry J. Bush was announced yesterday by Warden W. R. Doell.

Mr. Bush has been chief clerk for seven and one-half years. He was appointed to the position by J. P. Corgan, former warden, and came to Marquette from Ontonagon. Warden Doell said yesterday that the appointment of Mr. Cowpland was effective immediately, but that Mr. Bush would remain at the prison for two weeks.

British Loan Four Ships To Australia

Portsmouth, England (AP)—The British admiralty has approved the lending of four destroyers from the royal navy to the Australian government to strengthen its sea force.

The vessels—the Vampire, Vendetta, Waterhen, and Voyager—are fast, well-armed craft which came into service toward the end of the European war.

They will leave October 7 for Australia.

PLAYS THIS WEEK

Monday—Fords vs. Cleaners.
Tuesday—Sinclair vs. Barkers.
Wednesday—Barkers vs. Cleaners.
Thursday—Fords vs. Nortons.

Prospects of a merry battle for the second half of the Manistique Diamond Ball league race looms up big as the Manistique Cleaners appear to be showing signs of the strain of the first half of the campaign. In the Cleaner's last two games they have encountered considerable difficulty, winning a close contest from the Nortons and being handed their second defeat of the season's play by the Sinclair Oils.

Creighton's Fords are starting out on the same basis as they did in the early season contests and are now leading the loop with a perfect percentage. The Norton Specials are only one step behind them by reason of coping two out of three games to show new life in the last stand of the season.

The Ford's lead will be threatened this week when they tackle the strong Cleaner team Monday evening, while the other feature game of the week is carded for Thursday evening between the Fords and Nortons in a battle for the league lead.

Re-Elect Officers Of Education Board

The organization meeting of the Manistique Board of Education was held Friday evening at which all officers were re-elected. T. H. Bolitto will serve as president of the board for the ensuing year, H. A. Cockram, vice president; and Alice G. Reilly, secretary.

The board accepted the report of the election commission. It was the first meeting for Dr. A. R. Tucker and Roy Roberts, newly elected members who succeeded W. G. Stephens and R. O. Drexel.

Metropolitan Plans Fair
Iron Mountain—More than 100 head of purebred and high-grade dairy cattle will be on exhibition at the annual Metropolitan community fair to be held Saturday, August 5, Art Lonsdorf, county agricultural agent, announced yesterday.

Called the "greatest home show in upper Michigan," the Metropolitan community fair, conducted wholly by the farmers and without prizes or awards of any kind, is considered one of the foremost agricultural features in the district, and annually attracts hundreds of visitors from every section of the peninsula and state.

Milk Supply Reduced
Menominee—Robert Haese, city milk inspector, yesterday reported that drought and the grasshopper plague have reduced cattle pasturing in the county to such an extent that milk production has been cut to a point where several dairies have received such diminished supplies of milk that they have been forced to buy cream. Ordinarily the dairies separate their surplus milk to produce cream.

The higher prices for milk paid at cheese factories also has proven a factor in reducing receipts of milk at dairies and creameries, Mr. Haese said.

New Camp Commander

Menominee—Maj. Robert Van K. Harris of Wausau, Wis., has taken command of Wells Camp of the Civilian Conservation Corps in John W. Wells State Park, Cedar River, relieving Lieut. S. A. Daniel, Detroit, who is now second in command.

Wells Camp now has four commissioned army officers, Lieut. A. Porzell, Cleveland and Lieut. B. Seid, M. D., camp physician, completing the staff.

Daniel, a second lieutenant, organized the camp and managed it until relieved this week by Major Harris.

Two Paving Projects

Ironwood—Rids on the construction of a little more than a half mile of 29-foot concrete paving on US-2 in the city of Ironwood to connect with the new stretch of pavement in Iron county will be opened at the district office of the state highway department in Crystal Falls Tuesday, Aug. 8.

Manistique Ready To Enjoy Big Community Picnic at Lake Today

Today all roads lead to Arrowhead Inn, Indian Lake, where the biggest recreational event ever held in this city, the Legion community picnic, will get under way at nine o'clock and continue throughout the day, in a big whirl of attractions which are certain to keep all picnic goers in a continual hub of excitement.

An unusual program of special features in addition to the ordinary run of picnic events has been secured with a great deal of effort on the part of members of the Manistique Post of the American Legion. Features which will score big hits are the bathing beauty contest, the Escanaba drum and bugle corps drill, aerial circus, William Girard in his expert hot rolling exhibitions, and many others.

In addition will be the regular aquatic events, athletic contests, vaudeville skits from the platform, music provided by the W. O. W. band and many other forms of entertainment as listed in the complete program.

A fine entry list has been secured for the bathing beauty contest, but in order to induce more young ladies to compete for the title of "Miss Manistique," entries have been allowed to remain open until the time of the contest, 2 p. m.

Entrants are required to bring their own suits and may don their attire in the dressing rooms provided for the contestants. The young women will parade on the platform to music. Six judges, three men and three women, will select the three prize winners.

Sales Tax Will Be Discussed Here At Court House Tues'y

Applications for licenses to sell at retail and the general sales tax returns having been received and due to the supplementary regulations and decisions that have been made by the state board of the tax administration since the last mass meeting, it has been thought advisable to hold a meeting for all who come under the provisions of the general sales tax. This meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, August 1, at the court house.

In order that one may know whether one comes under the provisions of the act one should bear in mind that if you sell tangible personal property to consumers for use and to persons for resale, that you are required to take out a license in order to do business, and to make a return each month beginning with July 1. The return is to be made out not later than the fifteenth of the following month. The sales act does not merely cover merchants.

Also at this meeting will be discussed the provisions of the employment agreement under the National Industrial Recovery Act.

300 See Wrestling And Boxing Fights

A crowd of over 300 frenzied fans saw one of the best boxing and wrestling bills held here in some time when four of seven boxing matches ended in technical knock-outs and one was decided upon a foul. Only two of the bouts were draws.

Joe Fenelly, of Detroit, lost the feature bout of the evening to Frenchy Lalonde, of this city, when Referee Mickey Mitchell awarded the fight to the latter after one minute of fighting in the eighth and final round. Fenelly had been warned repeatedly earlier in the fight to discontinue the use of the rabbit punch and when he began using that punch in the eighth round, Referee Mitchell stopped the fight.

Both fighters were evenly matched and the bout was a slug-fest from start to finish, with neither having a decided advantage. The decision proved to be very unpopular with the Stephen foresters and quite a furor arose following the match.

Detroiters Win

The Detroit boys, however, fared better in the other matches on the bill, all but one securing at least a draw with their local opponents. In the 120-pound class, Mickey Robertson, of Detroit, won by a technical knock-out over Don Arrowood, of this city. Clarence Monroe, Detroit, was defeated by Benny Woods of this city, by a technical K. O. Frank Perout, of Detroit, and Everett Collier, Manistique, fought a slashing draw at 135 pounds; Tarzan Krishon, Detroit, scored a technical knock-out over John Haindl, of Cooks, in a fine bout in the 145-pound division; Buck Jackson, veteran local boxer, and Frank Marvin, of Detroit, fought a draw in the light heavyweight class; and Roman Mirzejewski defeated Rob Champagne, Manistique, by a technical knock-out.

Detroit wrestlers scored two wins out of three matches following the boxing exhibition. John Akine, Detroit, threw Sagbrush Hilton, of Beaver Island, in ten minutes in a one-fall match and Red Vaughn tossed Elmer Knuth, of Cooks, "Tut" Arrowood was the only successful wrestler from this vicinity to win a match, throwing Stanley Howrylak in the feature match of the evening.

The entire card was greatly enjoyed by the fans who voted in the best bill put on here in years. The bouts were promoted by "Tut" Arrowood, local sportsman. The American Legion post of this city is planning to put on a boxing and wrestling show. The first part of next month under the direction of Clifford "Buck" Jackson.

GRAINS SLUMP TO THE LIMIT

Traders Are Puzzled By Fall in Prices at Chicago

BY H. ALAN VOLKMAR
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Chicago, July 29 (AP)—For the second successive day, wheat and other grains dropped the limit permitted by trading rules of the Board of Trade today. Wheat, rye and barley finished five cents lower, corn dropped its allotted four cents and oats three.

Traders admitted frankly they were bewildered at the action of the market. They could advance no reason for the fall in prices. All ordinary crop news and market factors apparently were ignored.

The weather reports and forecasts for most of the wheat and corn belts were such as would cause sharp rises in prices under ordinary conditions. Private crop reports indicated even greater curtailment of production both in the United States and Canada and estimates pointed out that previous predictions had been borne out.

Actually the market was demoralized and only the recent action in settling daily limits for fluctuation of prices prevented even more drastic undermining of values, traders said.

Market observers said there were orders to sell millions of bushels of grain which could not be executed because no buyers were in the market. Had it not been for the pegged prices, they said, there was no telling how far prices might have dropped.

Grains also closed at the lowest prices for the day at Winnipeg, Liverpool and other market centers in the United States. In Chicago July wheat fell to 94 cents, September to 97 1/8, December to 1.00 1/4 and May to 1.04 7/8. These quotations represented a decline of ten cents for the past two days.

Corn finished at 49 1/2 cents for July, 53 3/8 for December and 64 1/8 for May. May oats dropped to 47 1/8, May rye to 85 and December barley to 62 1/4.

One crop expert predicted 29,000,000 bushels less wheat would be harvested than indicated in the government official figures of 467,000,000 on July first. The 1932 harvest was 726,000,000. A Canadian report suggested a probable yield of 225,000,000 bushels, compared with last year's crop of 408,000,000.

Another unofficial corn report placed the United States aggregate at 2,363,000,000 or 21,000,000 bushels less than a month ago and 511,000,000 under last year's yield.

Provisions, flour and cotton also were lower in sympathy with grains.

Starting Monday, the Board of Trade will return to regular trading hours, 9:30 a. m. to 1:15 p. m. (Central Daylight Time). The limits of fluctuation in grain prices will remain in effect until further notice.

New York, July 29 (AP)—New York security markets were closed today, but will resume their regular hours of trading next Monday.

A survey of the dairy industry by Dun & Bradstreet says that drought conditions in many producing centers and a decrease in the size of herds due to better livestock prices have lowered the milk supply for the seven months of the current year. The average decrease in production is estimated at 5 to 10 percent from the first seven months of 1932.

The New York Federal Reserve Bank today reported withdrawal of $12,054,300 from earmarked gold stocks for shipment to France.

Two shipments of gold, withdrawn from earmarked stocks, and aggregating $7,500,000, went forward to Europe today on the liner Aquitania.

First Life Policy A Loss In Queen Elizabeth's Time

London (AP)—The 350th anniversary of the first life insurance policy has been marked here.

It was in 1583, when Queen Elizabeth was on the throne, that a William Gylboms took out a policy for $1,900.

The insurers lost, for Gylboms paid a premium of $150 and died within a year.

Out of this small beginning a colossal business has grown, the working class alone carrying $6,000,000,000 industrial insurance.

250,000 Tons Shipped

Iron River—With our shipments continuing in July at about the same pace they struck in June, it was estimated yesterday that approximately 250,000 or one quarter million tons of ore have been shipped from this district since the opening of the navigation season.

Shipments were resumed this week in the Pickands-Mather group, with several shovels working. Definite information as to the tonnage proposed to be shipped during the week was unavailable, as officials of the company explained that "orders were in

The Roll of Honor

Staff of NRA Toils Overtime On Work Code

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington—Some at least of those white collar workers about whom Gen. Johnson has been so much concerned aren't getting the benefit of the 40-hour week.

The workers in the general's own department, for instance, who have been fixing it so the rest of us stay on the job so long, frequently toil far into the night. Lights blaze from the Commerce Building, which houses NRA, until midnight and later.

The general himself works as hard as anyone. Most key officials are at their desks from 8 or 9 in the morning until 7 or 8 at night. Visitors are so numerous and conferences so frequent that most can be accomplished in the twilight hours. So many of these officials return after dinner and may not get home until 2 or 3 in the morning.

And of course the executive must have his assistants, secretaries and stenographers around. The result is that a lot of lovely girls are becoming thin and pale. One slender little NRA blond has lost four pounds in two weeks, and it's going to be a crime if she loses any more.

This goes on especially in NRA, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Public Works Administration, the R. P. C. and other agencies actively promoting the New Deal. But it's also true of many regular departments and bureaus which are operating with new duties and curtailed staffs.

Frayed Nerves Common

Frayed nerves and dazed brains are common.

No one works harder or longer than Gen. Hugh Johnson. Up late the night before, he was "buggy-eyed"—as one of his aides described it—when he opened the oil hearings.

Johnson, after the first witness was through, called two separate witnesses and successively turned them off with the assertion that they were appearing in the wrong order. After whispered conferences with Legal Adviser Richard and Deputy Administrator Simpson, Johnson realized that they had come on in the correct order. So he called them back to finish their speeches.

Sinclair Walks Out

One of the witnesses was Harry F. Sinclair, who looked older than in his appearances here during the oil scandal trials but still didn't seem to be missing any tricks.

Johnson, not realizing that the first speaker had presented the code, halted Sinclair after about two minutes and said he must wait until the code had been ordered. Sinclair, confused, left the hall. When Johnson called for him again, someone else had to read the Sinclair statement.

Business of Being Tough

When an industrialist gets tough, Johnson still knows how to get tougher.

He called in representatives of the shipbuilders one night when an impasse had been reached on their code.

The shipbuilders found Joseph Franklin and John P. Frey, labor leaders representing the shipyard workers, waiting in Johnson's office.

What, they demanded, were they birds doing there? Johnson ucked out his chin and roared: "You fellows have got a wrong idea in your heads. Now get it

Shipbuilders, Shipworkers and the Government

That was all—except that the shipbuilders accepted Johnson's demand for a 32-hour week in yards engaged on government construction and a 36-hour week elsewhere and on repairs. Labor had demanded a 30-hour week and the industry a 40-hour week.

RAPID RIVER

Rapid River, Mich.—Mr. and Mrs. William Hruska and daughter Mary Jo are returning Sunday to Milwaukee after a week's visit in Escanaba and here.

Mrs. Elmer Fraleigh of Newberry is spending the week-end at the A. J. Forest home. She was accompanied by Miss Elaine Johnson who was visiting there for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harmon have returned to Oak Park, Ill., after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gravelle for two weeks.

Charles Schramm and Ernest Rushford of the Steuben Forest camp are visiting the week-end at their homes.

Billy have returned to Elgin, Ill., after visiting at the home of Mrs. Cassidy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gerlach.

Dr. Fred Belland of Sharon, Penn., is visiting for several days at the home of his brother, William Belland and with his father, Philip Belland of Escanaba.

Lyle and Joe Trotter, left Thursday for Chicago where they will spend a week at the Century of Progress.

Mrs. William Acker is seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. Charles Burton was operated for her appendicitis at the St. Francis hospital Friday morning.

Mr. Burton of the Seney C. C. C. camp was called here because of her illness. Mrs. Burton was formerly Miss Bernice Colomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grooson and children Carl and Madge of Leslie, Mich., arrived Friday to spend several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McPherson.

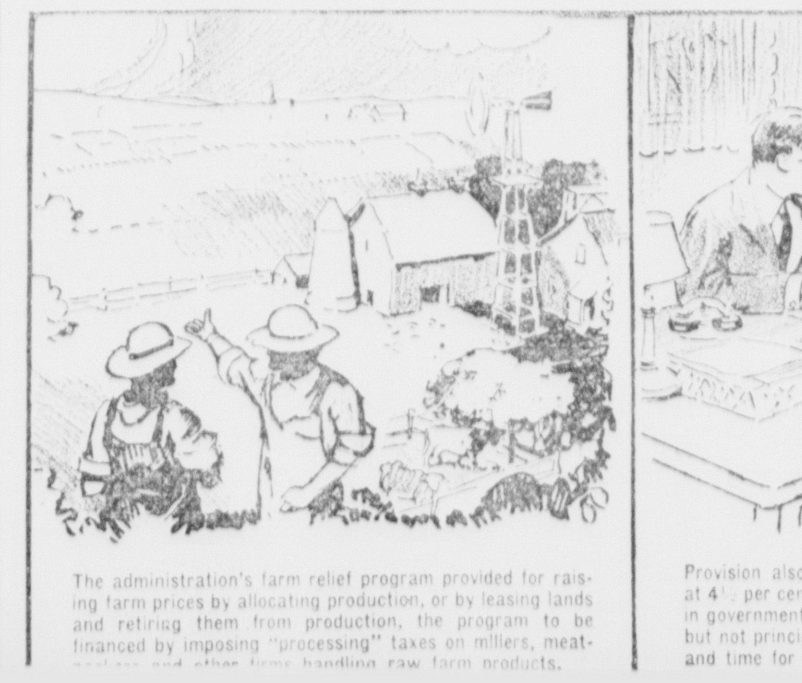

Mrs. Ole Sundquist returned from Chicago, where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Hoffman. Her niece, Betty, returned with her, and she will visit here the rest of the summer.

Two Indiana state prison inmates suspended from the base-jail team because they were caught trying to escape over a wall at night. Back to the old rules; over the fence is out.

There still seem to be a lot of men who have the gift of grab.

THE NEW DEAL IN PICTURES—NO. 4

Text by John M. Gleissner Sketches by Don Layin

The administration's farm relief program provided for raising farm prices by allocating production, or by leasing lands and retiring them from production, the program to be financed by issuing "processing" taxes on millers, meat-packers and those firms handling raw farm products.

Shippers took 100 and estimated holdover 1,000. Compared with week ago market 15 to 20 lower. Light lights, good and choice 140 to 160, 3.60 to 4.35.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, July 29—It was practically impossible at times today to sell any future delivery of grain in Chicago at any price. Frightened by unfamiliar regulations intended to prevent futures markets from going up or down, many grain traders engaged in excited efforts to get rid of speculative positions wholesale. The result was an extraordinary general selling stampede that for the second day in succession plunged all grain values down to the lowest limits allowed under new emergency rules.

Ten cents a bushel was thus slashed from the value of wheat as compared with 18 hours ago. The markets ended for the time being in a state of virtual paralysis, notwithstanding that crop news was of a character which under usual conditions would have led to eager purchasing and to sharply rising quotations.

Wheat especially closed demoralized at the day's bottom figures, with wheat, rye and barley closing 5 cents under yesterday's finish, corn and oats respectively down 4 cents and 3 cents, and provisions showing 9 to 35 cents decline.

One leading authority today figured the 1933 probable wheat yield of the Canadian prairie provinces as only 45,000,000 bushels, compared with 48,000,000 harvested last year. Similarly, a widely known Chicago export estimated the United States total wheat crop this season at 457,000,000 bushels, against the July 1 government forecast of 456,000,000 and last year's harvest of 726,000,000. Domestic spring wheat production was put at only 135,000,000 bushels.

Corn, oat, rye and barley paralleled the action of wheat.

Provisions gave way with hog values and with grains.

REPORT OF FAIRBANKS UNIT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Fairbanks Unit School District held at the Town Hall, Monday, July 10, 1933.

Meeting called to order at 1 p. m. by the chairman. The secretary of the school board was requested to read the financial report for the school year ending June 30, 1933.

There was put up for sale a box stove discarded from the Burnt Bluff school. Rupert Greene offered $2.00 for the stove and was sold to him.

Owing to the fact that the County Tax Commission fixed our rate of money to be levied for school purposes, no action was necessary by the electors.

Meeting was adjourned and polls opened.

RUTH PREVENTS YANK SHUTOUT

Senators Wallop Second Place Holders, 11-5,
Behind Crowder

Piling up a 5-0 lead in the first three innings, Joe Cronin and his aggressive mates clinched the game early and most of the interest in the later stage centered on the possibility of administering that long deferred shutout.

The Senators collected 12 safeties altogether off the deliveries of Johnny Allen and Charlie Devens, lanky ex-Harvard athletes who replaced him in the eighth.

After Ruth had personally accounted for three runs in the eighth, the Senators added three of their own with the aid of two walks by Devens, Cronin's lonely fly and Dickey's overthrow on first.

In the ninth Chapman opened for the Yanks with a rousing triple to center and scored on Dick Eby's single through second. Lazzeri, who had walked, tallied off Crosetti's long fly but Crowder bore down, struck out Ruffin and who came in as a pinch hitter and the game ended when Kube took Combs' grounder and beat him to the bag.

HOLD TWO BIG PICNICS TODAY

Outings To Be Held at Bark River and Pioneer Park

Picnics at Pioneer Trail park and Bergman's Grove in Bark River will be held today for the enjoyment of hundreds of residents of Delta and surrounding counties.

A great program of athletic events will be held at the Pioneer Trail park outing, which is sponsored by the Escanaba and Gladstone Barbers' Union No. 340. The Swedes of Gladstone and the Paper Makers will meet in a diamond ball game at 10 a. m. Athletes of the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Garth will meet the best talent of the upper peninsula in a series of track events. Valuable prizes will be awarded to winners.

Proceeds from the event will be used for financing the state barbers' convention to be held in Escanaba next year. Busses will make regular trips to the park. St. George's parish is sponsoring the picnic to be held at Bergman's Grove in Bark River. Fine menus have been prepared for the dinner and supper that will be served by the ladies of the parish on the grounds. Various contests will be played. The Stephenson band will play throughout the day. In the afternoon, the Escanaba Knights of Columbus will play Bark River in a baseball game. The general public is invited to attend.

Outdoor Swimming Record Shattered

Portland, July 29 (AP)—Jack Medina of the Washington Athletic club bettered a national outdoor swimming record here today when he did the one thousand yards in 11:37.25, in the Pacific northwest 1933 championships.

Medina, who holds the national outdoor records in the 440 and 880 yard events, cut 47.35 seconds from the time of Buster Crabbe of Hollywood, who held the previous record of 12:25.

Soviet 5-Year Plan Is Failure-Jermain

Soviet Russia's ambitious Five Year Plan has collapsed. This was the startling information brought to America by George Jermain, who, accompanied by his Russian wife, arrived here Friday to spend the summer at the home of his father, William Jermain, 513 South Eleventh street, after spending more than three years as a mining engineer in the employ of the Soviet Mining Trust.

"The Five Year Plan has failed because the Russian people were not equal to the task," Mr. Jermain declared. "It stands to reason that you cannot take a nation of people, most of them ignorant peasants, living in a primitive agricultural state, and transform them almost overnight into a group who can effectively master the problems of a complex machine age. Such a radical change in the industrial, agricultural and social systems was simply impossible under the existing conditions."

Says NRA Will Work
Discussing briefly the broad outlines of the National Recovery Act in this country, Mr. Jermain stated that the new industrial program resembles in some respects the Five Year Plan.

"The National Recovery Act program calls for national planning for industry, which is still owned and operated under private capitalism," Mr. Jermain explained. "In Soviet Russia, however, there is centralized governmental planning for industry, which is to tell the truth, in the hands of the Communist party."

Public ownership in that country is a misnomer for the Communist party really is in possession of the industry and resources of that vast country of 180,000,000 population. Mr. Jermain said. He predicted that the administration would be capable of making the National Recovery Act program work because, he said, the American people are experienced and trained for the job.

Dying of Starvation
Soviet Russia is now experiencing another major famine, according to Mr. Jermain. Thousands and thousands are slowly starving to death due to the fact that agricultural production has gone into a slump. The huge collective farms have failed to produce their quotas because of the breakdown of tractors and other agricultural equipment, the proper care of which the Russian mechanics never seem to be able to learn.

The peasant farmers, long the backbone of that empire's agricultural system, also are laying down which they plan to do this summer while staying in Escanaba.

Producing Much Oil
In two fields of activity, oil production and aviation, Soviet Russia has made great strides, according to Mr. Jermain. A fine system of commercial airways is being developed, and the army flying force is attaining much strength and efficiency.

Being engaged as assistant chief engineer for the Soviet Mining Trust, however, was a disappointing experience for him although quite interesting. He was in charge of mining operations for nonferrous metals principally in the Ural Mountains region, his work requiring his traveling about, by airplane, automobile, horse and camel, a distance of over 60,000 miles annually.

Communist politics interfered too much with the mining business, Mr. Jermain said. Operations would never be going along smoothly for a long time before some party leader would dictate a change of policy, usually one of political expediency rather than an effort to increase production. The Russian worker's inexperience in the handling of machinery also accounted for an alarming toll of fatal accidents. Reports of such occurrences are suppressed, Mr. Jermain stated.

Life Was Interpreter
Mrs. Jermain served as an interpreter for her husband both underground and on the surface. She speaks English, French and other languages fluently, having received her education from a tutor when she lived with her parents at Odessa, in southern Russia. Her father was a banker in Russia, was dispossessed of his wealth under the Red regime.

Elaborating on the reasons for the breakdown of Soviet Russia's industrial system, Mr. Jermain explained that under the Five Year plan the various plants were geared on to fill their quotas. Technical directors faced severe punishment for failure to produce. As a result, much equipment, such as tractors, trucks, and power motors, was hastily constructed and shipped to their destinations, sometimes with parts missing.

"Some tractors were sent out on the farms without any wheels and other parts," Mr. Jermain said. "Much of this broken-down equipment is to be found strewn about the country."

The educational system also failed to produce sufficient well-trained technicians to carry out the vast industrial program. Mr. Jermain explained that so much of the teachers' efforts are concentrated on inculcating the principles of Communism into the minds of the people that little attention has been paid to the training of capable engineers.

May Go to Greece
Under a different regime, Mr. Jermain stated, he would like to return to Russia for he feels that the country has great possibilities because it is endowed with a wealth of natural resources. He is now thinking of going to Greece next winter to engage in mining with a friend, who has purchased some properties in that section of Europe.

Three Tied In Lead Of Horseshoe Match

Chicago, July 29 (AP)—Blair Nunamaker of East Cleveland, O., the defending champion; Jimmy Risk of Montpelier, Ind., and G. C. Hawley, Bridgeport, O., were tied for the lead in the national horseshoe pitching tournament at the end of the first round of match throwing today.

Each had won seven games and lost one. Nunamaker dropped his to Ed Wall, Detroit, 50 to 14; Risk was beaten, 50 to 34, by Bert Duryea, Wichita, Kas., and Hawley lost to Verne Licht, Lodi, Wis., 50 to 19.

Tied for second place, at six victories and two defeats were C. C. Davis, Kansas City, five time winner of the title; Ted Allen, Alhambra, Calif., and Russell Ziegler, Pittsburgh, Ill. Allen pitched 425 ringers, for the best mark in that department, while Duryea topped the field of 24, in doubles with 139.

Jack Koeksema, of Grand Rapids, Mich., won two out of eight.

Roosevelt Praises Flying Mollisons

New York, July 29, (AP)—Captain and Mrs. James A. Mollison received a letter from President Roosevelt today congratulating them on their flight from Wales which ended at Bridgeport, Conn., a scant half hour's flying time from New York.

"It is with great pleasure that I congratulate you and Mrs. Mollison," said the letter to the captain. "In the name of the American people on your splendid non-stop flight across the Atlantic from Pendine, Wales, to the United States."

"The simplicity with which you view your flight is indeed a token of distinction. As time passes, your courageous achievement will be engraved in the annals of aviation progress and in that, there is satisfaction."

"Wishing you a speedy recovery from your mishap at Bridgeport, Conn., and with every good wish for a splendid journey in the United States, I am, faithfully yours, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The Mollisons, who are passing the week-end at Rye, N. Y., will receive a civic reception Tuesday after a parade from the battery to city hall. They are guests at Rye of Amelia Earhart Putnam.

EASTERN U. P. FAVORS US-2

Schoolcraft and Mackinac Counties to Urge Its Paving

Representatives of various communities interested in proposed programs of new highway construction will confer at the Delta hotel in Escanaba at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting is to agree on a definite program of work to be requested of Murray D. Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner, when that state official visits Escanaba on Wednesday.

Menominee and Marquette county citizens are anxious to secure the paving of US-41, between Hansen and Powers in Menominee county, and also the stretch between Gladstone and Marquette.

Delegations from Schoolcraft and Mackinac counties are expected to urge construction work on US-2, east of Rapid River. This project also is much favored by Delta county interests, since improvement of that highway is much needed and, it is felt, would promote more tourist travel. The new route of US-2 from Rapid River to Nahma Junction has been surveyed and other preparations have been made to launch construction work at once.

Cohn And Ben Dey Play Singles Today

Grand Haven, Mich., July 29 (AP)—Jay Cohn, Chicago, and Ben Dey, of Los Angeles, meet tomorrow in the final singles match of the seventh annual Highland Park junior tennis tournament here. The winner will win the Thomas F. Otley trophy.

Trevor Weiss, Chicago, and Dey, seeded No. 1 team in the doubles competition, meet Norm Bickel, Oak Park, Ill., and Fred Renker, Topeka, Kas., in the doubles title match.

Cohn eliminated Bickel today in the singles semi-finals, 6-0, 6-4, and Dey defeated Weiss, 6-4, 6-2. In the semi-final doubles match, Dey and Weiss defeated George Dullwig, Columbus, O., and Paschall Walthall, of San Antonio, Tex., 6-1, 6-1. Bickel and Renker defeated Jack Benjamin, Columbus and C. Murphy, Chicago, 6-1, 6-4.

Cohn eliminated Renker in the quarter finals of the singles play, 4-6, 6-0, 9-7, and Bickel eliminated Dullwig, 6-2, 6-2. Dey defeated Miller Sherwood, Grand Haven, 6-1, 6-1, and Weiss eliminated Walthall, 6-3, 7-5.

When only 16 years of age, Francis Bacon was offered an appointment to the staff of the English ambassador in France.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Nuisance," with Lee Tracy as a high-pressure, ambulance-chasing shyster lawyer in a whirl of comical and exciting adventures, is the attraction coming today to the Delt Theatre.

Based on an original story by Chandler Sprague and Howard Emmett Rogers, the rapid-fire drama of big city life is said to give Tracy an even more dynamic role than that of "Clear All Wires." The picture was directed by Jack Conway who filmed "Hell Below."

Madge Evans has the feminine lead as the girl detective, and the cast also features Frank Morgan who recently scored in "Reunion in Vienna," the amusing Charles Butterworth who plays Tracy's partner in crime, John Milpan, Virginia Cherrill, David Landau, Greta Meyer, Herman Bing, Samuel Hinds and Syd Saylor.

Tracy plays an ambulance-chasing lawyer whose trumped-up law suits are costing a street car company a fortune. A girl detective is set to trap him, but instead falls in love with him, and finally marries him so that she won't have to testify against him. She is jailed as a perjurer, but the clever shyster stops traffic by legal technicalities until he rescues her.

NRA MATERIAL ARRIVES HERE

Re-employment Agreement Blanks to Go Out Tomorrow

Copies of President Roosevelt's voluntary agreement blanks have been received at the Escanaba postoffice, and will be distributed to employers of three or more persons on Monday. Postmaster G. G. Genesee announces.

The text of the blank code appears elsewhere in today's issue of the press. Employers are asked by President Roosevelt to sign the agreements and mail them in the self-addressed envelopes to the department of commerce, Detroit. The certificates of compliance, however, are to be delivered at the postoffice, where the NRA insignias are distributed to those eligible. A meeting of retailers, employing more than three persons, will be held at the chamber of commerce office today for the purpose of considering a program of business hours.
